VAST APPROPRIATION REQUIRED TO PAY PENSIONS.

DIDN'T LEARN ANYTHING

Polishman Who Makes It a Point to Learn Something From Everyone Made a Visit to Gov. Wilson.

(By Van Cleave.)

Washington, D. C., Feb. 23.—With only nine more days remaining to this administration and to the sixty-second congress, things are happening with perplexing rapidity. In the turmoil that now exists no man can tell what a day will bring forth. The inaugural ceremonies, with the ushering in of a new administration, the cleaning up of the congested calendars in both house and senate, the acute situation in Mexico and various other propositions of more or less importance, to say nothing of the army of suffragettes about to bear down upon us, all tend to muddy the water until no man can tell what will come to the surface next.

New records are being made daily in congress and important history is being enacted. In a few days the record of this congress will have been made up and submitted to the people for their approval. The country has already registered its approval of the work of the first and second sessions, but it is possible that the final session may be less popular, partly because of some of the very acts that gave popularity to the early sessions. For instance, no congress has ever been as liberal with the old soldiers and their dependents as has this one. The Sherwood bill passed at the last session opened the way for every deserving survivor of the union army to secure a pension and provided for liberal increases. And in addition to this hundreds of special bills have been passed allowing pensions to those not eligible under the general laws and the rulings of the department.

The Democratic theory has been that whatever is to be done for the old soldier should be done at once and before they have all passed to their final reward. The ranks are rapidly thinning and the time for four-flushing has passed. This was apparently popular legislation and, in the belief of the majority, just legislation, but it is not without cost. It has added forty millions to the annual expenses of the government. Despite the dream of the government heads for years past that pension appropriations would decrease as the number of surviving soldiers decreased, the amount necessary to pay pensions has steadily increased until now it has reached the vast sum of two hundred million dollars yearly. The pension bill proper carried one hundred and eighty-five million three hundred thousand dollars, and amendments added a million more, and fifteen millions are carried in another appropriation bill for deficits of the past year and for carrying the laws into effect.

The river and harbor appropriations have reached vast proportions, and this congress has been unable to curtail the demand. Heretofore the east and north have corralled the greater part of these appropriations. This time the south controls. During the last session of the present congress the Democratic leaders successfully fought off a public building bill commonly known as the "pork barrel," but the tide was irresistible at this session and a bill passed the house last week authorizing appropriations to the extent of twenty-five millions. It was severely criticised by the economists of the house, but the majority in favor of it was so great that a record vote was not secured. The Republicans practically all voted for it. The report is that the senate will add considerable to it, which, if true, will probably defeat the bill in this congress.

President Taft vetoed the immigration bill. The senate passed the bill over his veto and the house came near doing so, lacking only six votes of the necessary majority. The president has not yet acted on the bill to regulate the shipment of liquor into dry territory, but it is said to hang by a thread with a veto probable. The naval bill is now before the house and a hard fight is in store over it. In the last session those who believed in the present adequacy of our navy prevailed, but it is likely that the "big navy" men will carry their point in this bill.

A bill passed the house some time ago extending government aid to agricultural schools and normal and other schools teaching agriculture. The senate passed a substitute extending the same liberal consideration for the normal school, which feature was originally secured in the house bill by Missouri members, but the senate bill extended the aid to trade schools and greatly increased the expenses involved, so that it is doubtful if the bill becomes a law at all. The house will not agree to any greater appropriation than it originally made, and unless the senate recedes from its position the measure will die in conference, along with a lot of meritorious measures.

The governor of Missouri and all the surviving ex-governors, together with the governor's staff are expected here to attend the inauguration, and the Missouri society has planned a reception and banquet for them the evening of March 5th.

Governor Wilson still maintains silence on all matters pertaining to his administrative plans. When two distinguished leaders from the west were here a few days ago after a visit to New Jersey, one of them remarked, "Well, we didn't find out a d—d thing, did we?" To which his companion replied, "Yes, we found out that nobody else knows any more than we do." Later on they came upon another well known politician from an important state, and in the course of the ensuing conversation he made the statement that he had always made it a point to learn something from every one he meets, no matter what his vocation he also had been. And the third gentleman, catching the force of the enquiry, replied: "Yes, except when I visited Governor Wilson."

It is stated upon good authority that the president-elect has not fully decided upon his cabinet, and all guesses are therefore useless. A report during the last two days is to the effect that he and Mr. Bryan have about come to the parting of the ways over the selection of the cabinet, but this is not given much credence. The general view is that the correspondents have guessed everything else, and this goes into the junk heap along with the rest.

A Washington news dispatch of the 25th says:

The senate today passed the $180,000,000 annual pension bill in the record time of twenty-five minutes, with less than fifteen minutes' debate. It is the largest amount of any annual pension measure in the history of the government.

HOPKINS MERCHANT VERY ILL.

Blood Poisoning From Irritation of Nose Near Eye Caused by Eyeglass Rims.

Al Kiser, the well known merchant of Hopkins, is critically ill of blood poisoning. Dr. F. R. Anthony of Maryville has charge of his case and visits him daily. The poisoning was caused by irritation of the skin on his nose, made by his eyeglass rims. The rims were brass. Mr. Kiser's condition would not be so serious if strong medicine could be given him. But the poisoning is so near the brain that to scatter it by using anything stronger would affect the brain.

Program Postponed.

The special program to have been given this Wednesday evening at the Presbyterian church has been postponed until next Wednesday evening. The program consists of a debate on the question, "Resolved, that home missions more benefit than foreign missions." The affirmative side is composed of W. H. Crawford and Dean G. H. Colbert, the negative side C. Edwin Wells and Prof. Swinehart.

MRS. CURTIS ALEXANDER WRITES OF HER EXPERIENCES.

CHICKENS DOING FINE

In Spite of Horrors of Uncivilized Warfare Ladies Still Find Time to Help Bazaars and Sales.

Mr. and Mrs. Scribner Beech, Sr., of this city received a letter Tuesday from their daughter, Mrs. Curtis Alexander of San Luis Potosi, Mexico, under date of February 16, which convinces Mr. and Mrs. Beech of her safety, notwithstanding the great troubles that are being experienced in that country at the present time. Portions of Mrs. Alexander's letter are given below and tell of some exciting experiences the Americans of her section are having from the hands of the rebels. They don't seem to be in danger, but are experiencing something that Maryville people would not especially enjoy. They seem well protected and are situated in such a manner that they can see the approach of the enemy from any direction, and are well prepared to meet whoever comes. The letter is as follows:

Now I reckon you are worrying. We are safe and well. Yesterday the company brought two wagon loads of groceries and medicines to store them here, so each family has quite a supply of canned goods, etc. Also they have plenty of ammunition. This week, all week, the stores have all been barricaded and many of the houses, but nothing happened.

Everyone got excited for Madero wanted to come here to make his provisional capital, but no, he was discouraged, gently but firmly, so he concluded to go where he had more admirers, as San Luis is notoriously anti-Madero.

From here up as far as Saltillo, all the bridges are out and the towns are burned and robbed, so there are no trains some days, and some days they get around by Tampico.

The rebels have been raising Cain up at Charcas. That is not far from here. There were twenty-two Americans there, mostly working at a mine on a little hill about two miles from Charcas. The rebels first cut all wires, telephone and telegraph, and then killed the telegraph operator, a Mexican, then burned the station, then went to town and raised a terrible fire, got all the Americans and best Mexican families in a church, then left them surrounded while they robbed and destroyed their houses. They then started up the hill to the mine. When the Americans heard them shooting and shouting "Die the Americans," they put out all the lights and stopped the machinery in the mine. When the rebels got close enough they all turned loose at once and killed fifteen Mexicans and wounded seventeen that could not get up, and it is not known how many others were wounded. As they were using sawed-off shotguns and buckshot and had about seventeen guns and very little ammunition the rebels ran when they saw so many Americans got on a freight car and engine that happened to be on the track by the mine. It was about 9 o'clock at night. No moon and dark. That means black down here. The women, some dressed and some only partly, and the children all came down here. They stopped in Charcas to try to rescue the people in the church, but could not, so they put their headlight out and turned the engine loose. I talked to the man who ran the engine. He was so nervous he could not hold a match to light his cigar. He said only one American was hurt and he was shot through both legs. The doctor said he had great fears the poor fellow would lose them both.

Yesterday a lot of Americans went up to rescue the Americans in the church. They had not returned today, and as there is no telegraphic connections, no one knows how they are coming out.

Every train that does go out by Tampico is held up, so no one is thinking of trying to get out from here. No one here knows what will happen and no newspapers are for sale, as the government confiscates all that comes. The other day I went to town and a newsboy had one paper, three days old, from Mexico City and he wanted $1 for it. It usually sells for 2 cents.

I have a big supply of everything and we are not in danger. Verdin came home, brought all his things, so we don't have to worry about him. He also made another gun. We have some new barricades on the walls and there is not near the danger in staying right here that there would be now to try to leave. Just think, two more days on this side of the border. They have to go clear around by Tampico, then to Monterrey, then to Laredo, but it takes two more days. So don't worry at all about us. If they do have rebels and things I don't mind it so much.

The Ladies' Guild in Spermish wrote to me, asking me to send them something for their Easter sale, so I tried to send them a little Saltillo blanket, but the postoffice would not receive it. They are not making out money orders, and some times don't want even letters. So if you don't hear from us please don't be uneasy as we are liable any day to be cut off for awhile. I will send you a postal every few days as long as I can, but if anything happens here all the Americans in San Luis Potosi are to come out here, even to the counsel, and we are fixed dandy to withstand anything. They are also putting a big searchlight on top of the tower, and we are on top of the hill, so you see there is nothing to worry about, even if I can't get a letter to you for a month. Then also there is to be a gunboat at Tampico, and if the railroad is put out of business we can ride there. It is not far.

THE HOBOS ARE AMERICANS.

Dr. John Gray Says Immigrants Today Are Equal to Those of Seventy-Five Years Ago.

"The immigrants coming into the United States today are as good a class of people as the immigrants of seventy-five years ago," asserted Dr. John A. Gray in his lecture "Out of Work," at the First Methodist church Tuesday night. "The hobos and derelicts one finds on the bowery in New York City and in other cities of the United States are not foreigners but Americans."

Dr. Gray's talk was based on his personal experiences with the "bos of New York City, when in the winter of 1907 he obtained a three months leave of absence from the church of which he was pastor, and spent three months and three days living the life of the "out of work" man that he might learn a way to help them.

The speaker said that a great many of those men with whom he came in contact, were living the lives of tramps because they liked it, and that although he suffered much from cold and hunger, he became enamored of the life.

"But what is the cure for such conditions?" asked Dr. Gray, and he admitted that at the present there seemed to be no way out of the difficulty. "It is impossible to reach such men through the churches," said the lecturer, because they think the church is an institution of the rich, and that the men of wealth are responsible for their condition. The only way to restore these unfortunates to civilization is to instill into their veins the spirit of manhood."

The lecture, which was the fourth number of the Normal lecture course, was attended by a large audience.

ANOTHER SNOW STORM.

More Snow Fell All Day Today—Was Not a Heavy Fall, But Was Wet.

Maryville and Nodaway county experienced another snow storm today and about three inches of snow fell. It was still snowing this afternoon and the storm was accompanied by a wind which drifted the snow in several places.

Tuesday evening it commenced to sleet and the sidewalks became so slick it was necessary to walk in the middle of the street. Many fell, but no serious falls are reported by the physicians. This fine sleet or misty rain kept up all night, and at 6 o'clock this morning it commenced to snow.

Maryville and the county had their first big snow last Friday, when we had a snowfall of four inches.

TO HEAD PARADE

SUFFRAGETTES WILL FOLLOW MISS NASH'S LADIES BAND.

TO CHAPERON 21 GIRLS

Mrs. G. A. Nash Starts on a Big Job Saturday at 10:52, When Our Girls Leave for Washington.

It is now an assured thing that Miss Alma Nash and her Missouri Ladies Military band will go to Washington and head the parade of the suffragettes on March 3, before the presidential inauguration.

The band will leave Maryville Saturday morning on the 10:52 Wabash train for St. Louis. After an hour's wait there they will leave on the Pennsylvania road for Pittsburgh, and will arrive there Sunday evening at 5:50 o'clock, where they will take supper and attend church services. They will leave Pittsburgh at 11:19 Sunday night and arrive in Washington, D. C., Monday morning at 8:26.

The band will be under the chaperonage of Mrs. G. A. Nash, mother of Miss Alma Nash. The party will be in care of special agents of the roads over which they will travel, and their care and safety is assured.

Miss Elizabeth I. Kent, chairman of the band committee for the suffragette parade, has a boarding place secured for them during their stay in Washington. The band will leave Washington for their trip home on Wednesday.

Miss Nash has received $550 from the suffragette organization for their expenses to Washington, which, with the $70 the band had in its treasury, brings the amount to $620. Through the efforts of J. S. Shinabargar and Dr. F. M. Ryan $300 was raised and added to this amount through subscription made by the Maryville business men, and it is expected that amount will be considerably added to by Friday.

Miss Nash is taking her band to Washington as a novelty for the suffragette parade and not with the idea that she has a band of artists, and she has so informed the committee at the head of the movement.

The members of the band who will make the trip to Washington are:

Cornets—Grace O'Brien, Mary Q. Evans, Hazel Garrett, Velma Lanning, Gertrude Kirch.

Clarinet, B flat—Mary O'Brien, Anna Dougan, Ora Quinn, Helene Young.

Clarinet, E flat—Margaret Conway.

Piccolo—Heleen Rowley.

Altos—Lela Caudle, Mrs. Del Thompson.

B flat tenor—Myrtle Lanning.

B flat baritone—Hazel Vandervoort.

Slide trombone—May Shipp.

B flat bass—Velma Gray Johnson.

E flat Bass—Florence Shipp.

Snare drum—Esther Everole.

Cymbals—Elizabeth Nash.

Bass drum—Orlena Hepley.

It is expected that a former member of the band, Miss Selma Young of Creston, will accompany them and also play the drums. Her father, C. C. Young of Creston, formerly of this city, has offered to give his daughter the trip.

FOR Y. M. C. A. HERE.

State Secretary J. H. Banks of St. Louis in Conference With Citizens of the City.

J. H. Banks, state secretary of the Y. M. C. A. association, was in Maryville Tuesday afternoon and was in conference with a number of the citizens in regard to a Y. M. C. A. for the city. No definite plans were made, except that there should be some agitation for a Young Men's Christian association in Maryville.

Returned to Oklahoma City.

Mrs. A. L. Shepard and youngest daughter, Marguerite, of Oklahoma City, Okla., visited over Monday night and until Tuesday afternoon with Maryville friends. They were on their way to their home in Oklahoma City, Okla., from a visit at Headrick, Ia., with Mrs. Shepard's mother, Mrs. Dr. Porter. The Shepard family formerly lived in Maryville, Mr. Shepard disposing of his clothing business here to H. D. Anderson.

BALDHEADED ROW.

Early Piety Not Always the Cause of Baldness.

Inasmuch as it is an accepted fact that baldness, falling hair and dandruff are caused by a germ, doesn't it stand to reason that the only way to prevent such calamities is to kill the germs?

And doesn't it stand to reason that the only way to kill these germs is to use Parisian Sage, which the Koch pharmacy has so much faith in that they guarantee it to cure dandruff falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back?

Parisian Sage is a delightful hair tonic, pleasant to use. It is not sticky or greasy, and contains only those ingredients that will surely benefit.

It is now sold by druggists all over America, and by the Koch Pharmacy for 50 cents a large bottle. It is used extensively by women who desire luxuriant hair with a radiant luster. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package.—Advertisement.

Mason-Lewis Wedding.

A very quiet wedding was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Mason, 405 East First street, when their daughter, Miss Estella Lois Mason, was united in marriage to Mr. Burt K. Lewis. The ring ceremony was used by Rev. Claude J. Miller of the First Christian church. Only relatives and immediate friends were present to witness the rites. The wedding music was given by Miss Edith Wilson, who played three piano numbers, the sextet from "Lucia" and "Souvenir," by Lack, were played before the wedding party appeared. The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played as the bride and groom entered the parlor, attended by Mr. Harry Lyle and Miss Mabel Mason, a sister of the bride. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Lewis left on the Burlington for Kansas City, and they will also visit points in Kansas. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit with hat and gloves to match and a corsage bouquet of violets. They will be at home to their friends at 615 East Fourth street after March 15. Mr. Lewis is a salesman for the Corwin-Murray Clothing company, and is the son of Mrs. Amanda Lewis of this city. Mrs. Lewis is one of Maryville's most popular girls. They have the happy wishes of many friends.

Hardisty-Hoshor Wedding.

A wedding took place Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hardisty, ten miles south of Maryville, when their daughter, Miss Alta Hardisty, was given in marriage to Mr. Douglas Hoshor, a young farmer of that community. The ring service was used by the officiating minister, Rev. Claude J. Miller of the First Christian church of this city. The ring was carried in the heart of a lily by Mary Marguerite Hardisty, the 3-year-old sister of the bride. The bride was lovely in her gown of soft white silk, with trimmings of shadow lace and bands of satin messaline with a touch of pale blue. Her bridal veil was held in place by lilies of the valley, and she carried bride roses. The wedding march was played by Miss Gertrude Icke. After congratulations the bridal couple led the way to the dining room, where an elegant three-course dinner was served to the guests. The house decorations were in green and white. A large white wedding bell hung from an evergreen hoop over the table. Fern leaves were used exclusively in decorating the table. Mrs. Hardisty, mother of the bride, was assisted by her sister, Mrs. W. R. Hughes, and daughters, Misses Nellie and Merle Hardisty, and Miss Marie Gross. Mr. Hoshor and his bride will be at home after March 1st on a farm nine and a half miles south of Maryville. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hoshor, south of Maryville, and both he and the bride have the well wishes of many friends for a happy life. The wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hardisty and Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Turner of Maryville, grandparents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hoshor and family, Mr. and Mrs. Warner Wood of Bolckow, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hughes and family and Rev. and Mrs. Claude J. Miller of Maryville, Miss Gertrude Icke and Miss Marie Gross.

MARVELOUS

CLAIRVOYANT

Reads Thoughts and Tells the Past and Future—Insists Upon Satisfaction to His Clients.

The success which has attended the marvelous manifestations of Mr. Bauer since his arrival in Maryville constitutes a tribute to his ability which is impossible to over-estimate. It is no exaggeration to say that each successive day has witnessed the delight and astonishment of scores of applicants who tested his powers.

One of the things upon which Mr. Bauer justly prides himself is the high class of his clientele. Those who consult him are the very best people of Maryville, not superstitious, fanatical or ignorant persons, but men and women of rare intelligence and judgment.

As has been frequently stated in the Maryville papers, Mr. Bauer is a man whose statements need no verification other than he is able to give them through his wonderful powers, Mr. Bauer, it must be truthfully said, employs none of the mysterious machinery which often serves to make spiritual manifestations suspicious. He impresses his gift upon the people who consult him without the employment of a single mechanical agency. In fact, he makes his clients understand that the power to read and see hidden things lies within him and it is not to be brought into action through the aid of inanimate influences.

Therefore it must be said that Mr. Bauer is of the very highest class of clairvoyants. His belief is that the material heavens have a moral influence over the earth and its inhabitants. There are some wiseacres who scoff at this idea, not knowing, perhaps, that the first study of the heavens embraced and dominated over every other attempt at science. Astrology was the beginning of science, the first encyclopedia of the world. In the ancient ages physicians consulted the stars and gave nostrums. The cosmologists explained the earth by the influence of the heavens. The Zodiac was the first book that lay open for all to read.

Ladies and gentlemen can visit Mr. Bauer without fear of having their confidence betrayed, as he considers his business a sacred trust. Mr. Bauer can be consulted daily at private residence, 322 North Mulberry street, corner of Fourth, the Maplehurst.

Hours—9 a. m. to 8 p. m. daily; 10 to 4 Sundays.

Readings $1.00, no more and no less. Mrs. Bauer receives all callers.

Notice—Positively no one seen after hours and no young ladies under 18 given readings unless accompanied by parents or guardians.—Advertisement.

Cause for Alarm

Loss of appetite or distress after eating—a symptom that should not be disregarded.

It is not what you eat but what you digest and assimilate that does you good. Some of the strongest, healthiest persons are moderate eaters. Nothing will cause more trouble than a disordered stomach, and many people contract serious maladies through disregard or abuse of the stomach.

We urge all who suffer from indigestion, or dyspepsia, to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, with the understanding that we will refund the money paid us without question or formality if after use you are not perfectly satisfied with results.

We recommend Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets to customers every day, and have yet to hear of one who has not been benefited. We believe them to be without equal. They give prompt relief, aiding to neutralize acidity, stimulate flow of gastric juice, strengthen the digestive organs, and thus promote perfect nutrition and correct unhealthy symptoms. Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.

You can buy Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets in this community only at our store.

FOUR MEN SURE OF PORTFOLIOS

Definite Information Supposed to Be Had in Washington.

SLATE IS WELL FILLED OUT.

Bryan, McAdoo, Daniels and Burleson Become Finalities in List of Cabinet Positions—War and Agriculture Said to Be in Doubt.

FOUR CABINET CERTAINTIES.

Secretary of State—William J. Bryan of Nebraska.
Secretary of the Treasury—William G. McAdoo of New York.
Secretary of the Navy—Josephus Daniels of North Carolina.
Postmaster General—Albert Sidney Burleson of Texas.

Washington, Feb. 26.—Cabinet gossip took a decidedly active turn about the capitol. Democratic leaders professed for the first time to speak with definiteness regarding the official family of President elect Wilson. It was evident that something more than speculation had come to the knowledge of those closely identified with the new administration, but the sources of this information were not disclosed.

It was said that the cabinet as a whole had been completed with the exception of a secretary of war and a secretary of agriculture. The choice of W. J. Bryan as secretary of state is looked upon as definitely settled. Another appointment spoken of as definite is that of Albert S. Burleson of Texas as postmaster general, although it was said Mr. Burleson might be shifted to the secretaryship of the interior before the personnel of the cabinet is announced.

Others believed to have been decided upon for cabinet portfolios are Josephus Daniels of North Carolina and William G. McAdoo of New York. Democrats believed to be in possession of accurate information from Trenton decline to indicate the portfolios to which Daniels and McAdoo might be assigned.

Some of the information is of a negative character. It was asserted with considerable positiveness that neither Representative Robert L. Henry of Texas nor Edward R. Walker of New Jersey would be designated as attorney general.

The selection of A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania as attorney general or in some other cabinet position was considered probable, but in some quarters it was said that Mr. Wilson was desirous of utilizing Mr. Palmer's services in the house of representatives.

SOLONS DISOBEY WILSON

New Jersey Legislature Refuses to Push Jury Reform Bill.

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 26.—Governor Woodrow Wilson warned the members of the New Jersey legislature that as president of the United States he would feel privileged to come back even as early as next week to fight before the people of the state for pending reforms.

Mr. Wilson resigned the governorship, to take effect Saturday. Both houses hardly had received his notice of resignation when the assembly went on record by an overwhelming vote against pushing the jury reform bill from first to second reading. This bill had been urged particularly by Mr. Wilson in his messages. It would take away the power to draw juries from the sheriffs, lodging it with a commission appointed by the governor.

Mr. Wilson believes the principle of justice in this country is at stake in the process of selecting juries and he declared that soon after his inauguration he might deliver speeches on this subject in northern New Jersey, most of whose assemblymen voted in effect against the governor.

Rostron Arrives for Medal.

THIRD MADERO IS SHOT DOWN

Emilio Killed When Overtaken by Trevino's Troops.

MANNER OF DEATH NOT CLEAR

Fighting, Which Lasts Two Hours, Results From Ambush of Military Train Between Ozumba and Capital. Zapatistas Yet on Warpath.

Mexico City, Feb. 26.—Emilio Madero, a brother of the late president, has been shot and killed north of Monterrey, according to reliable information received here.

With an escort of thirty-five men Madero, it is said, was attempting to join the rebels holding Laredo when he was overtaken by troops sent by General Trevino. The reports do not indicate whether Madero was killed in action or was executed.

The shooting of Madero took place between Villadama and Bastamante. As the rebel leader in the Laredo district, Geronimo Villare, is a partisan of General Trevino, the government expects that the trouble in that vicinity soon will be adjusted.

Emilio Madero, in conjunction with his brother, Raoul, began a counter-revolution at San Pedro, in the state of Coahuila, a few days ago, in the expectation of uniting the rebels about Saltillo with those in the Laredo district.

Peace Not to Be Had Soon.

Hope for immediate peace in Mexico is slight. Rebel activity in the north has increased and the government's efforts to enter into arrangements with the Zapatistas appears to have failed.

Whether the rebels whose center is the state of Coahuila have increased numerically is not known, but they have so conducted their operations that already communication with the frontier has been stopped.

In the south the Zapatistas continue burning and raiding and an attack on a military train between Ozumba and Mexico City leaves little doubt as to their attitude toward the new administration. The attack was of the ordinary ambush type. The train was stopped by a burned out bridge and the fighting continued for more than two hours.

Rebels Would Keep Titles.

One of the demands of the Zapatistas, made by the commissioner representing that section of the rebels, was that all Zapatista officers be admitted to the regular establishments with corresponding rank, some having assumed the title of general. To this the government strongly objected.

The commissioners left in order to report to their chief and soon word came back that the Zapatistas considered the revolution still in progress.

The government has sent forces southward toward Cuernavaca along the line of the Central railway, a portion of which will be rebuilt.

Reports from Morelos indicate that the work of destruction during the last twenty-four hours had been more complete.

BIG TEMPEST IN A TEAPOT

Troops Rushed to Brownsville Under Misunderstanding.

Brownsville, Tex., Feb. 26.—The dispatch of several companies of state and federal troops to protect Americans against alleged dangers from Mexican soldiers in Matamoros, Mexico, appears to have been the result of a decided misunderstanding. Matamoros, according to Americans arriving here, was about the quietest place on the map during the alleged trouble.

The troops were ordered out when Captain Head of the local state forces declared American Consul Johnson at Matamoros had asked him whether he (Head) could enter Mexico if necessary. Captain Head immediately wired this to Governor Colquitt. Consul Johnson laughed at reports that he had been in peril.

The military commander in Matamoros levied on Mexican residents of the city to maintain his soldiers as protection against bandits. Americans, however, were not molested. While the rumors were in circulation Texas state troops were ordered to the border.

New Plan Will Be Needed.

New York, Feb. 26.—Julius Kruttschnitt, chairman of the Southern Pacific company, said that the Union Pacific-Southern Pacific dissolution plan would "go by the board" and that a new plan would have to be evolved should the courts uphold the decision of the California state railway commission.

Mrs. R. H. Perry went to Kansas City Tuesday evening on business.

Dr. PRICE'S Cream Baking Powder

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is free from alum and lime phosphates. Made from grape Cream of tartar and absolutely pure. Its use is a safeguard to health, for it actually aids digestion, and relieves from all anxiety as to the wholesomeness of the food.

On the other hand each attempted imposition of an alum baking powder upon the consumer is a covert attack upon the health of the family. Of course, no grocer would knowingly sell injurious food to his customers; but he has himself been deceived as to the true character of the cheap powders by their manufacturers.

Forewarned, and solicitous for the health of her family, the housewife will be influenced to a constant watchfulness and a stubborn resistance against the danger.

Baking Powders sold at a lower price than Dr. Price's are almost invariably made from alum, and therefore inferior, and prejudicial to health.

Chicago Primary Election.

Chicago, Feb. 26.—A heavy Democratic vote was polled here at the primary election for aldermen and city officers. One judge of the superior court was also nominated. The Republican was much smaller than the Democratic vote, and but few Progressive ballots were cast.

Carter Leaves Chicago.

Chicago, Feb. 26.—Major General William H. Carter, commander of the Central department and Second division of the United States army, and his staff left here over the Illinois Central for Texas City, Tex., where he will take charge of 14,000 soldiers soon to be assembled there.

Mrs. William Patterson returned to her home in Bolckow Tuesday evening after a brief visit with Mrs. Elizabeth French.

Returned to Plattsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Swike and son returned to their home in Plattsburg Wednesday morning. Mrs. Swike and her son had been visiting here several weeks and Mr. Swike came to accompany them home.

to Natural Color--Dandruff
Quickly Removed.

There is nothing new about the idea of using Sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our grandmothers kept their hair dark, glossy and abundant by the use of a simple "Sage Tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance, they made a brew of Sage leaves, and applied it to their hair with wonderfully beneficial effect. Nowadays we don't have to resort to the old-time tiresome method of gathering the herbs and making the tea. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves; and all we have to do is to call for the ready-made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing Sage in the proper strength, with the addition of Sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy. This preparation gives youthful color and beauty to the hair, and is one of the best remedies you can use for dandruff, dry, feverish, itching scalp, and falling hair. Get a fifty cent bottle from your druggist today, and you will be surprised at the quick results. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented. Agent Kock Pharmacy.

MOTHERS OF PUNY CHILDREN.

May Find Help in This Letter.

"My little daughter ever since her birth had been frail and sickly, and was a constant source of worry. Several months ago I secured a bottle of Vinol and commenced to give it to her. I soon noticed an improvement in her health and appearance. I gave her in all three bottles and from the good it has done her I can truly say it will do all you claim."—J. Edmund Miller, New Haven, Conn.

The reason Vinol builds up weak, ailing children so quickly is because it contains in a delicious combination the two most world famed tonics—i. e., the strength creating, body building elements of cod liver oil, with all the useless grease eliminated, and tonic iron for the blood added. If you have a weak, puny, ailing child try Vinol. Our offer to return your money if it fails to benefit your little one. Orear-Henry Drug Co., Maryville, Mo.—Advertisement.

IN NEW YORKGovernment Physician Meets Tuberculosis Serum Discoverer.

BACILLI COMES FROM TURTLE

German Surgeon Says He Has Made
Hundreds of Cures of White Plague
During the Last Fourteen Years.
Has Treated Thousands.

New York, Feb. 26.—The United States government took official recognition of the claim of Dr. Frederick Friedmann to the discovery of a cure for tuberculosis when, by order of the surgeon general, a physician of the United States marine service, Dr. Milton H. Foster, was sent to meet the young German physician on his arrival here aboard the steamship Kronprinzessin Cecilie.

At the request of the government surgeon, Dr. Friedmann consented to turn over a quantity of his bacilli to be tested by the government and to demonstrate the efficacy of his cure by physicians of the hospital service.

Dr. Friedmann, who comes to this country at the invitation of Charles E. Finlay, a New York banker, who hopes the physician will be able to cure his son-in-law of the disease, declared that his remedy was not a secret and that he proposed to make known "to all the world" the method by which it was created and the manner in which it was administered.

It consisted of bacilli taken from a turtle, into which tubercular bacilli from a human being had been injected, he explained.

"I have been working upon the cure for fourteen years, and in the last two and a half years I have treated from 2,500 to 3,000 patients," he asserted. "How many I have absolutely cured I cannot estimate, but their number has run into hundreds. The remedy cures all forms of tuberculosis except such cases as are quite hopeless—that is, on the point of death."

BRIDGE ARBITRARY ARGUED

Attorney General and Counsel for Terminal Association Have Tilt.

St. Louis, Feb. 26.—Attorney General Wickersham appeared before the United States court for the eastern district of Missouri and asked that the St. Louis terminal charge, known as the bridge arbitrary, be abolished. This arbitrary, the government contends, is a bridge toll levied by the Terminal Railway association on coal shipped from Illinois fields into St. Louis and constitutes a discrimination against St. Louis.

The request was a clause of an interlocutory decree, submitted to Circuit Judges Sanborn, Hook and Smith, sitting as the district court, to make effective the decree of the federal supreme court destroying the alleged terminal monopoly.

The arguments before the court brought a sharp clash between the attorney general and Henry S. Priest, counsel for the terminal association.

Mrs. Sickles Again Aids General.

New York, Feb. 26.—Mrs. Caroline G. Sickles, who pawned her jewels several months ago to save the household effects of her husband, General Daniel E. Sickles, from going under the hammer, again may prevent the sheriff from selling him out. General Sickles' effects were to have been sold at public auction March 7 to satisfy a judgment held by a bank, but Mrs. Sickles filed with the sheriff a chattel mortgage covering all furniture in the general's Fifth avenue home. The mortgage is for $12,000, was executed Dec. 6, 1912, and was witnessed by General Sickles' lawyer.

Civil Trial for Mother Jones.

Charleston, W. Va., Feb. 26.—The supreme court of West Virginia decided that Adjutant General Elliott, in command of the military in the Kanawha strike country, must produce Mother Jones and other strike leaders in court today. Habeas corpus proceedings were begun in order that they might be tried by a civil court instead of by the military commission. The order of the court that the prisoners be brought to Charleston is accepted by the miners as a victory in the proceedings.

Gompers to Advise Iron Workers.

Indianapolis, Feb. 26.—The delegates to the annual convention of the union ordered action deferred on all questions involving the future of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, all but two of whose officials were convicted at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial, until after the visit of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor. LAXATIVE FOR OLD PEOPLE—"CASCARETS"

What Glasses Are to Weak Eyes, Cascarets Are to Weak Bowels—A 10-Cent Box Will Truly Amaze You.

Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles. So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets, and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.—Advertisement.

MEXICAN REBELS ARE LESS ACTIVE

Huerta Thinks He Knows How to End Zapatista Troubles.

OTHER INSURRECTOS GIVE UP.

Orozco Sends Telegram to General Diaz Declaring Allegiance to New Government—Rabasa Is Appointed Ambassador to United States.

Mexico City, Feb. 27.—Keen satisfaction was displayed at the palace over late reports concerning the early disappearance of revolutionary disturbances in the north and south parts of the country.

It is not believed that the Zapatista problem, especially in the state of Morelos, will be solved immediately, but several minor chiefs have announced their willingness to serve the government.

The government officials realize the probability of a difficult campaign in the south, but General Huerta, who commanded the federals in the campaign which most nearly resulted in the ending of the Zapatista troubles and was checked only by Madero's benevolent interferences, believes he knows the situation sufficiently well to end the trouble.

The Zapatistas have added to the list of towns they already occupied Amecameca, on the Inter-oceanic railway, thirty miles southeast of Mexico City, and three others of minor importance. Raiding continues, with the usual atrocities, but troops are in pursuit of the murderous bands, for whom little rest is promised.

The revolution in the state of Queretaro appears likely of early settlement since Jesus Salgado, the oldest and most persistent rebel leader under Andrea Almazan and Julio Radilla, promises allegiance.

According to government advices, Venustiano Carranza, former governor of Coahuila, is making little headway in the new revolution inaugurated by him, with Saltillo as a base.

Raoul Madero Reported Killed. To the report that Emilio Madero was killed was added a rumor that his brother, Raoul, has met the same fate at Torreon. Both these young men were actively allied with Carranza, and, if true, their taking off doubtless will have a deterrent effect on rebel activity in that district.

Carranza still holds the region about Monterey, but General Trevino, the federal commander, who is at Monterey, is said to have dispatched troops in the direction of Saltillo. The government believes there will be little difficulty in regaining the rebel territory.

That region to the north of Monterey, including Laredo, now held by the rebels, the government asserts will soon be added to the loyal districts.

Colonel Pascual Orozco, Sr., who was allied with that movement, is known to have been for a long time under the domination of Pascual Orozco, Jr., and a telegram sent by the latter to General Felix Diaz, promising absolute allegiance to the government, is regarded as indicative of his father's.

Emilio Rabasa has been appointed ambassador of Mexico to the United States.

CASTRO WELCOMED TO CUBA

Former Venezuelan Dictator Greeted Enthusiastically by Populace.

Havana, Feb. 27.—General Cipriano Castro, former dictator of Venezuela, arrived here on board the steamer Saratoga from New York and was greeted enthusiastically by the populace. No opposition was offered to his landing. The immigration officials afforded him all possible facilities.

A flotilla of tugs and launches, crowded with people, met the Saratoga off Morro castle and accompanied it to its anchorage. On board one tug was the municipal band, lent by the mayor of Havana, which played the Cuban and Venezuelan national anthems. Another tug was occupied by a committee of Cuban veterans.

General Castro landed on San Juan wharf, where 500 people were gathered. As he passed through the crowd he raised his hat and repeated several times "Viva" for the Cuban nation. The people responded with cheers for Castro.

The entire crowd followed the visitor, who drove in an automobile decorated with the Venezuelan colors, to his hotel, where General Rafael Reyes, ex-president of Colombia, also resides.

Wickersham Resumes Smelting Probe.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The department of justice has resumed its investigation of the American Smelting and Refining company, to determine whether it is a "smelting trust" in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law. Responding to a house resolution a year ago, Attorney General Wickersham said there was no evidence at this time in possession of the government warranting prosecution.

Mrs. Pankhurst Committed for Trial.

ARCTIC EXPEDITION TO EXPLORE WIDE AREA

Stefansson Announces Plans for Four-Year-Trip.

New York, Feb. 27.—Vilhjalmur Stefansson, discoverer of the blond Eskimo, made public his plans for the four-year expedition he plans to lead to the Arctic next May. In this space he hopes to wipe off the map much of the white space indicating unexplored regions of the far north.

Stefansson and his companions—eight or ten picked men of science—will sail out of Esquimalt, B. C., near Victoria, the latter part of May or in early June on the steam whaler Karluk, purchased for the expedition by the Canadian government.

The barkentine will carry the party as far north as ice-filled seas will permit. Under favorable conditions some time in September they expect to reach land somewhere in the Beaufort sea, now unexplored. There they will establish a base, sending the vessel back and remaining for the winter. In the spring they will go north. They will return to civilization in September, 1916.

Dr. R. M. Anderson of Iowa, who was with Stefansson on his last trip, will be second in command. A powerful wireless apparatus, designed to carry messages 1,000 miles, will keep the explorers in daily touch with the world.

MAY RESUME RACE MEETS

New York Jockey Club Stewards Issue Significant Statement.

New York, Feb. 27.—From the wording of a statement issued after meetings of the stewards of the Jockey club and of the several racing associations, the impression prevails among racing men that the powers that govern horse racing in this vicinity have about decided to open some of the metropolitan tracks the coming season. The way is held to have been paved for such action by a recent court decision holding oral betting not unlawful, thereby exempting directors of racing associations from liability for betting in this form.

Tells of Auto Ride With Victim's Body.

Salem, Mass., Feb. 27.—For half an hour after he had killed George E. Marsh, an aged manufacturer of Lynn, William A. Dorr drove up and down the Lynn boulevard with the body propped up beside him in the single seat of his runabout. Other automobilists passed him, but he attracted no attention. This is a part of the story Dorr told to a jury before which he is being tried for murder.

Bill for Department of Labor.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The bill to create a department of labor, with a cabinet officer at its head, passed the senate after less than an hour's consideration. The measure had previously passed the house, but amendments in the senate will require its perfection in conference before it is presented to President Taft.

CARDUI WORKED LIKE A CHARM

After Operation Failed to Help, Cardui Worked Like a Charm.

Jonesville, S. C.—"I suffered with womanly trouble," writes Mrs. J. S. Kendrick, in a letter from this place, "and at times, I could not bear to stand on my feet. The doctor said I would never be any better, and that I would have to have an operation, or I would have a cancer."

I went to the hospital, and they operated on me, but I got no better. They said medicines would do me no good, and I thought I would have to die.

At last I tried Cardui, and began to improve, so I continued using it. Now, I am well, and can do my own work. I don't feel any pains.

Cardui worked like a charm."

There must be merit in this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women—Cardui—for it has been in successful use for more than 50 years, for the treatment of womanly weakness and disease.

Please try it, for your troubles.

POLICE REFORMS RECOMMENDED

New York Committees Join in Suggesting Changes in Laws.

FEW GRAFTERS, SAYS GAYNOR.

Mayor Insists That Great Majority of Police Are Not Corrupt and That Newspapers Are in Graft Up to Their Armpits.

New York, Feb. 27.—Three committees, one appointed by the state legislature, one by the board of aldermen and one by a board of citizens, joined in an effort to reform the New York police force. The result of their labors probably will be legislative bills providing for sweeping changes.

Mayor Gaynor was the principal witness before the legislative committee, while two of his predecessors, former Mayors McClellan and Low, gave their views to the committee of aldermen. At the same time the citizens' committee, appointed immediately after the murder of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal, laid before the legislative committee detailed recommendations.

The most radical reform suggested was the appointment of a new commission, to be called the "board of social welfare," which should take from the present police force the duty of regulating gambling, social vice and the liquor traffic. This plan was presented by the citizens' committee.

Former Mayor McClellan united with the citizens' committee in the belief that it is impossible to suppress the Sunday sale of liquor in New York and that the present law invites the levying of police tribute on saloon-keepers.

Mayor Gaynor declared that among the 10,000 New York policemen there were not more than fifty grafters.

"I hope there will be no delusion at Albany," the mayor said. "Do not think that the police of New York are failing in their duty or are corrupt; it is not so. And don't get the notion that the newspapers are not in this graft—they've been in it up to their armpits for twenty-five years."

ANHUT MAKES DENIAL

Lawyer Accused by Dr. Russell in Thaw Case Testifies.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 27.—John Nicholson Anhut, the lawyer accused by Dr. John W. Russell, superintendent of Matteawan hospital, of having offered him a bribe of $20,000 to release Harry K. Thaw, was a witness before Governor Sulzer's committee of inquiry.

Anhut, who was formerly a Michigan state senator, told of meeting Dr. Russell often and of discussing the Thaw case. He said Dr. Russell recommended him to Thaw, from whose agent Anhut received $25,000, which was to be returned unless the lawyer succeeded in freeing Thaw.

Anhut said that Russell asked where he (Russell) "would come in," and that later Russell asked him if he would be satisfied with $5,000. Anhut said:

"If Dr. Russell had in his mind that he was to receive any money, such a proposition was not in my mind. I would not even give him a Christmas present, because it might look like a bribe. When I saw that Russell wanted money I dropped the subject and left him."

The lawyer denied having used Governor Sulzer's name in connection with the Thaw case.

Uncle Sam Will Have Tea Party.

New York, Feb. 27.—A tea party by the federal government on the Hudson river is scheduled for March 3, according to announcement that the customs authorities here have been authorized to dump into the river 20,000 packages of imported tea which did not come up to the standards Uncle Sam has set up for that beverage. The tea weighs almost 100,000 pounds and belongs to Carter Macey, an importer, who is fighting the proposed action of the government.

Negro Women Fall in Line.

Baltimore, Feb. 27.—After a two days' stay here the suffragette "army of the Hudson" resumed its arrival at Washington march and arrived at Laurel, twenty miles from here. Recruits from Baltimore started with the hikers, but all but four turned back when the city limits were reached. At Elkridge five negro women, with a banner inscribed "Votes for Colored Women," fell in line, but dropped out after walking several hundred yards.

Two Battleship Program Defeated.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The two-battleship program favorably reported by the house naval committee was defeated in the house sitting as a committee of the whole. An amendment to appropriate for one battleship only went through, 114 to 133. A majority of the Democrats voted for the amendment, while the Republicans were almost solidly against it.

German Aviator Killed.

Muelhausen, Germany, Feb. 27.—A German military aviator, Sergeant Helfersneider, was killed and his companion, Lieutenant Linke, seriously injured here. Their aeroplane fell while they were flying around the military aerodrome. Helfersneider took one of the turns too sharply and the machine toppled over backward.

Preventive Medicine—Small-Pox.

The epidemic of small-pox in Oklahoma serves as an illustration of the cost to a community of one infectious disease. The people are leaving their homes and places of business and the section is quarantined.

If the people would practice vaccination not a single case of small-pox need develop. The cost of vaccination to the infected areas would be only a small per cent of the cost of the disease.

It may be truly said that at this time there is no grounds for the presence of small-pox save the lack of knowledge and prejudice of the people.

If a good vaccine is used and antiseptic precautions taken, severe reactions rarely occur.

Small-pox may, very easily, be brought from Oklahoma to Missouri. Every person should look into this question and protect himself from small-pox.

LOTS OF BEAUTIFUL, GLOSSY HAIR, NO DANDRUFF--25 CENT "DANDERINE"

HAIR COMING OUT!—IF DRY, BRITTLE, THIN OR YOUR SCALP ITCHES
AND IS FULL OF DANDRUFF—USE "DANDERINE."

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of Dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you will actually see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine will immediately double the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove to yourself tonight—now—that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Advertisement.

MARVELOUS CLAIRVOYANT

Reads Thoughts and Tells the Past and Future—Insists Upon Satisfaction to His Clients.

The success which has attended the marvelous manifestations of Mr. Bauer since his arrival in Maryville constitutes a tribute to his ability which is impossible to over-estimate. It is no exaggeration to say that each successive day has witnessed the delight and astonishment of scores of applicants who tested his powers.

One of the things upon which Mr. Bauer justly prides himself is the high class of his clientele. Those who consult him are the very best people of Maryville, not superstitious, fanatical or ignorant persons, but men and women of rare intelligence and judgment.

As has been frequently stated in the Maryville papers, Mr. Bauer is a man whose statements need no verification other than he is able to give them through his wonderful powers, Mr. Bauer, it must be truthfully said, employs none of the mysterious machinery which often serves to make spiritual manifestations suspicious. He impresses his gift upon the people who consult him without the employment of a single mechanical agency. In fact, he makes his clients understand that the power to read and see hidden things lies within him and it is not to be brought into action through the aid of inanimate influences.

Therefore it must be said that Mr. Bauer is of the very highest class of clairvoyants. His belief is that the material heavens have a moral influence over the earth and its inhabitants. There are some wiseacres who scoff at this idea, not knowing, perhaps, that the first study of the heavens embraced and dominated over every other attempt at science. Astrology was the beginning of science, the first encyclopedia of the world. In the ancient ages physicians consulted the stars and gave nostrums. The cosmogonists explained the earth by the influence of the heavens. The Zodiac was the first book that lay open for all to read.

Ladies and gentlemen can visit Mr. Bauer without fear of having their confidence betrayed, as he considers his business a sacred trust. Mr. Bauer can be consulted daily at private residence, 322 North Mulberry street, corner of Fourth, the Maplehurst.

Hours—9 a. m. to 8 p. m. daily; 10 to 4 Sundays.

Readings $1.00, no more and no less. Mrs. Bauer receives all callers.

Notice—Positively no one seen after hours and no young ladies under 18 given readings unless accompanied by parents or guardians.—Advertisement.

CLEAR THE WAY TO EDUCATION

Bill Disregarding Tuition Passes
Missouri Legislature.

PERSONS OVER 20 CAN ATTEND

Jefferson City, Feb. 27.—Persons more than twenty years old who want to get an education now can attend the public schools of Missouri without having to pay a tuition. The house passed a bill making this possible. It already has passed the senate and is now ready for Governor Major's signature.

The bill throws open the doors of the night schools of Kansas City and St. Louis to working young men and women, especially the foreigners. It reduces the school age from six to five and provides that the boards of education may grant gratuitous education to persons over twenty years old.

The bill was submitted as a constitutional amendment at the last election, but was defeated. Lawyers who investigated decided the matter could be brought about by statute.

A bill to create a state tax commission to find out what is the matter with the state's revenues was introduced in the house. It creates a commission of five to investigate the matter of taxation thoroughly and to lay its report before the governor and the legislature in two years. A second taxation bill also was introduced, reducing the state levy for the revenue fund from 15 cents to 10 cents on the $100 valuation.

FUND TO FIGHT HOG CHOLERA

State Will Aid Farmers in Stamping Out the Disease.

Jefferson City, Feb. 27.—The state is to aid the farmers in driving hog cholera from Missouri. The joint house and senate committees on agriculture reported favorably a bill appropriating $50,000 to equip a plant at the University of Missouri for manufacturing the serum which prevents the disease. It is to be sold to the farmers at cost.

Floyd S. Tuggle, chairman of the house committee, says that as soon as the plant is established every farmer in the state can obtain the serum at such a price that he cannot afford not to use. The agricultural department at the university is to have charge of the distribution of the serum to the farmers.

Bonner Marshal Goes Free.

Kansas City, Feb. 27.—Benjamin Milstead, city marshal of Bonner Springs, will not be prosecuted for shooting Charles Nelson in the depot in that city, Jan. 17. Residents of the town came to the aid of the man who for seven years has guarded their property at night, and W. W. Lacy, judge of the North City court, discharged him. Milstead shot Nelson while attempting to arrest him in the depot. He testified that Nelson drew a knife and attacked him.

Warrensburg Man Shot Father-in-Law.

Warrensburg, Mo., Feb. 27.—William Hall, a laborer, shot his father-in-law, Henry Ray, and Ray will die. Hall declares Ray had been drinking and abused Hall's wife. Hall remonstrated and Ray turned on him, when Hall fired two shots at his father-in-law.

Former St. Joseph Mayor Dead.

LISTENS TO LAST HEARTBEAT

Instrument Maker Fastens Stethoscope to His Ear and Then Stabs Self.

Philadelphia, Feb. 27.—With a stethoscope applied to his ears, Karl W. Schneider, a manufacturer of surgical instruments, listened to his heart record its dying beats after he had pierced that organ with a steel lance. Near the body, which was discovered in the rear of his store, the police found a piece of paper on which was written the figures "1-2-2" and ending with "S.C."

Deputy Coroner McKeever believes this is the record of the pulsations Schneider had strength to record before his death.

Powers Decline Request of Turkey.

Constantinople, Feb. 27.—The mission to London of Ibrahim Hakkı Pasha on behalf of the Ottoman government has failed. His object was to persuade the powers to support the claim of Turkey to the retention of Adrianople. He was, however, unable to prevail on the powers to accept the porte's note as a basis for fresh peace negotiations and he had no authority to go beyond the proposals contained in that document.

Earthquake in New Zealand.

Wellington, N. Z., Feb. 27.—With a report as of artillery discharges a heavy earthquake shook this city, terrorizing inhabitants, shaking down chimneys and damaging many houses. Putting On Specs.

I clamped them on the bony part of the bridge of the nose.

"No, no," cried the optician. "That don't do at all! About five thousand people out of five thousand put on their glasses wrong. Observe—I place the glasses above the bridge and as close to the eyes as possible. I spread the grips wide apart and settle them in the flesh well up at the very top of the nose. There you are, sir! Now, you try it."

He pushed toward me a small oval mirror that stood on a rod. I sat before it and faithfully worked at eye-glass drill. When at last I got the glasses high enough I had the top part canted too far forward. Again and again the optician had to push out the lower part of the glasses.

"Now you have it," he said, after half a dozen trials of my skill. "Please remember. Fix the glasses always parallel with the face and close to the eyes as possible."

"Oh—ow!" I exclaimed; "they'll give me cramps in the eyelids; the eyelashes are brushing them."

"Oh, well," he advised, patiently, as one who had traversed the ground a thousand times before, "if you like, you can take a pair of scissors and trim your eyelashes short. The family members of your family will object that the trimming spoils your looks."

"A man's looks," I shouted. "Who ever heard of a man having 'looks'?"

"You'll see," said the optician—and, by George! he was right. Queer how much we still have to learn about femininity, no matter how ancient we may be.

After dinner I permitted myself to be discovered solemnly reading through the spectacles.

"Why, pay!" said Family, a little shocked but determined to be pleased. "How comfortable you seem! And you look exactly like a Japanese diplomat. Take care or people will take you for a highbrow."

Thus are we mocked when adversity overtakes us. But worse was to come. That ancient and implacable enemy of all mankind, the Candid Friend, was still to be heard.

"Fine!" he declared, with a cunning pretense of spontaneous admiration as he approached my desk this morning. "Fine! You look just like Ben, the Educated Pig, that used to travel with the circus."

Let them jibe, one and all. I care not.

Reading is once more a pleasure. And when I look up from the page the glasses, which magnify objects and bring them nearer, show me that she is lovelier than ever.—William Hemmingsway, in Harper's Weekly.

The First Valentine.

Have you ever quite forgotten it—the real "for-sure" one that came through the village postoffice directed unmistakably to you in a boy's chirography?

How your heart jumped into your throat and stayed while you ran into the parlor and closed the door! How your breath made a pillar of cloud in which you stood by day and tried with teeth and chilled fingers to untie the well wrapped and beautiful mystery!

For of course it was beautiful, penny dreadfuls of earlier years counting not at all in the genuine valentine list.

Do you remember how your eyes filled with glad tears, through which danced countless pink rose wreaths and flaming hearts on paper embroidered artistically enough for a queen's coronation robe? And the rotund, well nourished Cupid, dressed only for a February day in the tropics, who stood in the middle distance and aimed love tipped arrows straight at you?

Then, oh, the heavenly perfume of musk and Jockey Club arising from the plumpiest of blue satin cushions in the upper right hand corner! How superior to the attar of roses of today!

And the tilting lines in the foreground! The wonderful, rhythmical quatrains and couplets in which love more amazing than you had ever suspected was boldly proclaimed in melodious verse.

Has any "Be mine, dear one!" of later years thrilled you with quite the same unparalleled bliss as

The rose that blooms in June is fine, So are the stars above, And you must be my valentine For you're the one I love!

As sure as the grape grows on a vine I'm going to have you for a valentine!

And is it not a fact that your first impulse was to show the rest of the family only an edition with the sentimental and piratical printing carefully expurgated lest eyes twinkle through lack of sympathetic understanding?

Of course, you didn't know who sent it! It might have been Ira C.—in the fourth grade, because his father was rich, or Horace F.—, upstairs, who took you home on his sled so often after school, and it might have been—but at the glorious possibility you blush and tremble, but say never a word. Oh, if it only were from him! At the improbability of such a miracle, your heart left its lodging place in your throat and gravitated swiftly to the shoes upon your feet, coming gradually back to a normal position under the influence of baked squash and pink roses, both before you at dinner, served promptly at noon.

That was many valentines ago, when your hair ribbon was larger than you, and your cheeks the twenty-four-hour kind of rosy; but would a valentine of rubies and radium thrill you half so ecstatically today?—Nellie Parker Jones in Lippincott's Magazine.

If We Knew.

Could we but draw back the curtains

That surround each other's lives, See the naked heart and spirit,

Know what spur the action gives, Often we would find it better,

Purer than we judge we should; We should love each other better

If we only understood.

Could we judge all deeds by motives,

See the good and bad within, Often we should love the sinner

All the while we loathe the sin. Could we know the powers working

To overthrow integrity, We should judge each other's errors

With more patient charity.

If we knew the cares and trials,

Knew the effort all in vain, And the bitter disappointment,

Understood the loss and gain, Would the grim external roughness

Seem, I wonder, just the same? Should we help, where now we hinder,

Should we pity where we blame?

Ah! We judge each other harshly,

Knowing not life's hidden force; Knowing not the fount of action

Is less turbid at its source. Seeing not amid the evil

All the golden grains of good; Oh, we'd love each other better

If we only understood.

LET BARS DOWN

FAST APPROPRIATION REQUIRED TO PAY PENSIONS.

DIDN'T LEARN ANYTHING

Politician Who Makes It a Point to Learn Something From Everyone Made a Visit to Gov. Wilson.

(By Van Cleve.)

Washington, D. C., Feb. 23.—With only nine more days remaining to this administration and to the sixty-second congress, things are happening with perplexing rapidity. In the turmoil that now exists no man can tell what a day will bring forth. The inaugural ceremonies, with the ushering in of a new administration, the cleaning up of the congested calendars in both houses and senate, the acute situation in Mexico and various other propositions of more or less importance, to say nothing of the army of suffragettes about to bear down upon us, all tend to muddy the water until no man can tell what will come to the surface next.

New records are being made daily in congress and important history is being enacted. In a few days the record of this congress will have been made up and submitted to the people for their approval. The country has already registered its approval of the work of the first and second sessions, but it is possible that the final session may be less popular, partly because of some of the very acts that gave popularity to the early sessions. For instance, no congress has ever been as liberal with the old soldiers and their dependents as has this one. The Sherwood bill passed at the last session opened the way for every deserving survivor of the union army to secure a pension and provided for liberal increases. And in addition to this hundreds of special bills have been passed allowing pensions to those not eligible under the general laws and the rulings of the department.

The Democratic theory has been that whatever is to be done for the old soldier should be done at once and before they have all passed to their final reward. The ranks are rapidly thinning and the time for four-flushing has passed. This was apparently popular legislation and, in the belief of the majority, just legislation, but it is not without cost. It has added forty millions to the annual expenses of the government. Despite the dream of the government heads for years past that pension appropriations would decrease as the number of surviving soldiers decreased, the amount necessary to pay pensions has steadily increased until now it has reached the vast sum of two hundred million dollars yearly. The pension bill proper carried one hundred and eighty-five million three hundred thousand dollars, and amendments added a million more, and fifteen millions are carried in another appropriation bill for deficits of the past year and for carrying the laws into effect.

The river and harbor appropriations have reached vast proportions, and this congress has been unable to curtail the demand. Heretofore the east and north have corralled the greater part of these appropriations. This time the south controls. During the last session of the present congress the Democratic leaders successfully fought off a public building bill commonly known as the "pork barrel," but the tide was irresistible at this session and a bill passed the house last week authorizing appropriations to the extent of twenty-five millions. It was severely criticised by the economists of the house, but the majority in favor of it was so great that a record vote was not secured. The Republicans practically all voted for it. The report is that the senate will add considerably to it, which, if true, will probably defeat the bill in this congress.

President Taft vetoed the immigration bill. The senate passed the bill over his veto and the house came near doing so, lacking only six votes of the necessary majority. The president has not yet acted on the bill to regulate the shipment of liquor into dry territory, but it is said to hang by a thread with a veto probable. The naval bill is now before the house and a hard fight is in store over it. In the last session those who believed in the present adequacy of our navy prevailed, but it is likely that the "big navy" men will carry their point in this bill.

A bill passed the house some time ago extending government aid to agricultural schools and normal and other schools teaching agriculture. The senate passed a substitute extending the same liberal consideration for the normal school, which feature was originally secured in the house bill by Missouri members, but the senate bill extended the aid to trade schools and greatly increased the expenses involved, so that it is doubtful if the bill becomes a law at all. The house will not agree to any greater appropriation than it originally made, and unless the senate recedes from its position the measure will die in conference, along with a lot of meritorious measures.

The governor of Missouri and all the surviving ex-governors, together with the governor's staff are expected here to attend the inauguration, and the Missouri society has planned a reception and banquet for them the evening of March 5th.

Governor Wilson still maintains silence on all matters pertaining to his administrative plans. When two distinguished leaders from the west were here a few days ago after a visit to New Jersey, one of them remarked, "Well, we didn't find out a d—d thing, did we?" To which his companion replied, "Yes, we found out that nobody else knows any more than we do." Later on they came upon another well known politician from an important state, and in the course of the ensuing conversation he made the statement that he had always made it a point to learn something from every one he meets, no matter what his vocation may be. "I can find out something new from every man I meet," said he. "You have always been able to do that?" said one of his companions somewhat doubtfully and with a searching glance, for they knew where he also had been. And the third gentleman, catching the force of the enquiry, replied: "Yes, except when I visited Governor Wilson."

It is stated upon good authority that the president-elect has not fully decided upon his cabinet, and all guesses are therefore useless. A report during the last two days is to the effect that he and Mr. Bryan have about come to the parting of the ways over the selection of the cabinet, but this is not given much credence. The general view is that the correspondents have guessed everything else, and this goes into the junk heap along with the rest.

A Washington news dispatch of the 25th says: The senate today passed the $180,000,000 annual pension bill in the record time of twenty-five minutes, with less than fifteen minutes' debate. It is the largest amount of any annual pension measure in the history of the government.

HOPKINS MERCHANT VERY ILL

Blood Poisoning From Irritation of Nose Near Eye Caused by Eyeglass Rims.

Al Kiser, the well known merchant of Hopkins, is critically ill of blood poisoning. Dr. F. R. Anthony of Maryville has charge of his case and visits him daily. The poisoning was caused by irritation of the skin on his nose, made by his eyeglass rims. The rims were brass. Mr. Kiser's condition would not be so serious if strong medicine could be given him. But the poisoning is so near the brain that to scatter it by using anything stronger would affect the brain.

Colbert, the negative side C. Edwin Wells and Prof. Swinehart.

MRS. CURTIS ALEXANDER WRITES OF HER EXPERIENCES.

CHICKENS DOING FINE

In Spite of Horrors of Uncivilized Warfare Ladies Still Find Time to Help Bazaars and Sales.

Mr. and Mrs. Scribner Beech, Sr., of this city received a letter Tuesday from their daughter, Mrs. Curtis Alexander of San Luis Potosi, Mexico, under date of February 16, which convinces Mr. and Mrs. Beech of her safety, notwithstanding the great troubles that are being experienced in that country at the present time. Portions of Mrs. Alexander's letter are given below and tell of some exciting experiences the Americans of her section are having from the hands of the rebels. They don't seem to be in danger, but are experiencing something that Maryville people would not especially enjoy. They seem well protected and are situated in such a manner that they can see the approach of the enemy from any direction, and are well prepared to meet whoever comes.

The letter is as follows:

Now I reckon you are worrying. We are safe and well. Yesterday the company brought two wagon loads of groceries and medicines to store them here, so each family has quite a supply of canned goods, etc. Also they have plenty of ammunition. This week, all week, the stores have all been barricaded and many of the houses, but nothing happened.

Everyone got excited for Madero wanted to come here to make his provisional capital, but no, he was discouraged, gently but firmly, so he concluded to go where he had more admirers, as San Luis is notoriously anti-Madero.

From here up as far as Saltillo, all the bridges are out and the towns are burned and robbed, so there are no trains some days, and some days they get around by Tampico.

The rebels have been raising Cain up at Charcas. That is not far from here. There were twenty-two Americans there, mostly working at a mine on a little hill about two miles from Charcas. The rebels first cut all wires, telephone and telegraph, and then killed the telegraph operator, a Mexican, then burned the station, then went to town and raised a terrible time, got all the Americans and best Mexican families in a church, then left them surrounded while they robbed and destroyed their houses. They then started up the hill to the mine. When the Americans heard them shooting and shouting "Die the Americans," they put out all the lights and stopped the machinery in the mine. When the rebels got close enough they all turned loose at once and killed fifteen Mexicans and wounded seventeen that could not get up, and it is not known how many others were wounded. As they were using sawed-off shotguns and buckshot and had about seventeen guns and very little ammunition the rebels ran when they saw so many fall, and said they would return with more men. So as soon as they left the Americans got on a freight car and engine that happened to be on the track by the mine. It was about 9 o'clock at night. No moon and dark. That means black down here. The women, some dressed and some only partly, and the children all came down here. They stopped in Charcas to try to rescue the people in the church, but could not, so they put their heads out and turned the engine loose. I talked to the man who ran the engine. He was so nervous he could not hold a match to light his cigar. He said only one American was hurt and he was shot through both legs. The doctor said he had great fears the poor fellow would lose them both.

Yesterday a lot of Americans went up to rescue the Americans in the church. They had not returned today, and as there is no telegraphic connections, no one knows how they are coming out.

Every train that does go out by Tampico is held up, so no one is thinking of trying to get out from here. No one here knows what will happen and no newspapers are for sale, as the government confiscates all that comes. The other day I went to town and a newsboy had one paper, three days old, from Mexico City and he wanted $1 for it. It usually sells for 2 cents.

I have a big supply of everything and we are not in danger. Verdin came home, brought all his things, so we don't have to worry about him. He also made another gun. We have some new barricades on the walls and there is not near the danger in staying right here that there would be now to try to leave. Just think, two more days on this side of the border. They have to go clear around by Tampico, then to Monterey, then to Laredo, but it takes two more days. So don't worry at all about us. If they do have rebels and things I don't mind it so much.

The Ladies' Guild in Spermish wrote to me, asking me to send them something for their Easter sale, so I tried to send them a little Saltillo blanket, but the postoffice would not receive it. They are not making out money orders, and some times don't want even letters. So if you don't hear from us please don't be uneasy as we are liable any day to be cut off for awhile. I will send you a postal every few days as long as I can, but if anything happens here all the Americans in San Luis Potosi are to come out here, even to the counsel, and we are fixed dandy to withstand anything. They are also putting a big searchlight on top of the tower, and we are on top of the hill, so you see there is nothing to worry about, even if I can't get a letter to you for a month. Then also there is to be a gunboat at Tampico, and if the railroad is put out of business we can ride there. It is not far.

Our chickens are still fine and dandy.

THE HOBOS ARE AMERICANS.

Dr. John Gray Says Immigrants Today Are Equal to Those of Seventy-Five Years Ago.

"The immigrants coming into the United States today are as good a class of people as the immigrants of seventy-five years ago," asserted Dr. John A. Gray in his lecture "Out of Work," at the First Methodist church Tuesday night. "The hobos and derelicts one finds on the bowery in New York City and in other cities of the United States are not foreigners but Americans."

Dr. Gray's talk was based on his personal experiences with the "bos of New York City, when in the winter of 1907 he obtained a three months leave of absence from the church of which he was pastor, and spent three months and three days living the life of the "out of work" man that he might learn a way to help them.

The speaker said that a great many of those men with whom he came in contact, were living the lives of tramps because they liked it, and that although he suffered much from cold and hunger, he became enamored of the life.

"But what is the cure for such conditions?" asked Dr. Gray, and he admitted that at the present there seemed to be no way out of the difficulty.

"It is impossible to reach such men through the churches," said the lecturer, because they think the church is an institution of the rich, and that the men of wealth are responsible for their condition. The only way to restore these unfortunates to civilization is to instill into their veins the spirit of manhood."

The lecture, which was the fourth number of the Normal lecture course, was attended by a large audience.

ANOTHER SNOW STORM.

More Snow Fell All Day Today—Was Not a Heavy Fall, But Was Wet.

Maryville and Nodaway county experienced another snow storm today and about three inches of snow fell. It was still snowing this afternoon and the storm was accompanied by a wind which drifted the snow in several places.

Tuesday evening it commenced to sleet and the sidewalks became so slick it was necessary to walk in the middle of the street. Many fell, but no serious falls are reported by the physicians. This fine sleet or misty rain kept up all night, and at 6 o'clock this morning it commenced to snow.

Maryville and the county had their first big snow last Friday, when we had a snowfall of four inches.

TO HEAD PARADE

SUFFRAGETTES WILL FOLLOW MISS NASH'S LADIES BAND.

TO CHAPERON 21 GIRLS

Mrs. G. A. Nash Starts on a Big Job Saturday at 10:52, When Our Girls Leave for Washington.

It is now an assured thing that Miss Alma Nash and her Missouri Ladies Military band will go to Washington and head the parade of the suffragettes on March 3, before the presidential inauguration.

The band will leave Maryville Saturday morning on the 10:52 Wabash train for St. Louis. After an hour's wait there they will leave on the Pennsylvania road for Pittsburg, and will arrive there Sunday evening at 5:50 o'clock, where they will take supper and attend church services. They will leave Pittsburg at 11:10 Sunday night and arrive in Washington, D. C., Monday morning at 8:26.

The band will be under the chaperonage of Mrs. G. A. Nash, mother of Miss Alma Nash. The party will be in care of special agents of the roads over which they will travel, and their care and safety is assured.

Miss Elizabeth I. Kent, chairman of the band committee for the suffragette parade, has a boarding place secured for them during their stay in Washington. The band will leave Washington for their trip home on Wednesday.

Miss Nash has received $550 from the suffragette organization for their expenses to Washington, which, with the $70 the band had in its treasury, brings the amount to $620. Through the efforts of J. S. Shinabargar and Dr. F. M. Ryan $300 was raised and added to this amount through subscription made by the Maryville business men, and it is expected that amount will be considerably added to by Friday.

Miss Nash is taking her band to Washington as a novelty for the suffragette parade and not with the idea that she has a band of artists, and she has so informed the committee at the head of the movement.

The members of the band who will make the trip to Washington are:

Corbets—Grace O'Brien, Mary Q. Evans, Hazel Garrett, Velma Lanning, Gertrude Kirch.

Clarinet, B. flat—Mary O'Brien, Anna Dougan, Ora Quinn, Helene Young.

Clarinet, E. flat—Margaret Conway, Piccolo—Helen Rowley.

Altos—Lela Caudle, Mrs. Del Thompson.

B. flat tenor—Myrtle Lanning.

B. flat baritone—Hazel Vandervoort.

Slide trombone—May Shipp.

B. flat bass—Velma Gray Johnson.

E. flat Bass—Florence Shipp.

Snare drum—Esther Everole.

Cymbals—Elizabeth Nash.

Bass drum—Orlena Hepley.

It is expected that a former member of the band, Miss Selma Young of Creston, will accompany them and also play the drums. Her father, C. C. Young of Creston, formerly of this city, has offered to give his daughter the trip.

BALDHEADED ROW.

Early Piety Not Always the Cause of Baldness.

Inasmuch as it is an accepted fact that baldness, falling hair and dandruff are caused by a germ, doesn't it stand to reason that the only way to prevent such calamities is to kill the germs?

And doesn't it stand to reason that the only way to kill these germs is to use Parisian Sage, which the Koch pharmacy has so much faith in that they guarantee it to cure dandruff, falling hair and itching scalp in two weeks or money back?

Parisian Sage is a delightful hair tonic, pleasant to use. It is not sticky or greasy, and contains only those ingredients that will surely benefit.

It is now sold by druggists all over America, and by the Koch Pharmacy for 50 cents a large bottle. It is used extensively by women who desire luxuriant hair with a radiant luster. The girl with the Auburn hair is on every package.—Advertisement.

Mason-Lewis Wedding.

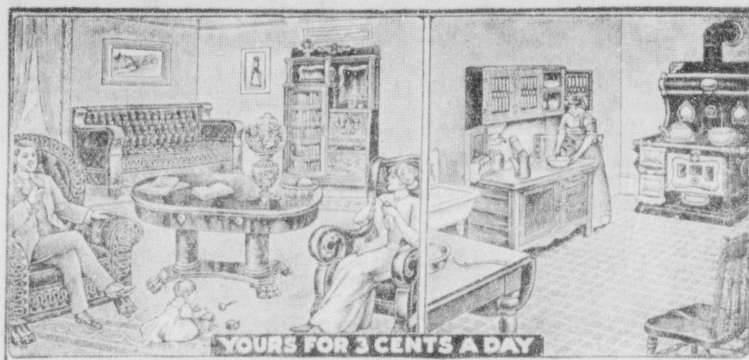

A very quiet wedding was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Mason, 405 East First street, when their daughter, Miss Estella Lois Mason, was united in marriage to Mr. Burt K. Lewis. The ring ceremony was used by Rev. Claude J. Miller of the First Christian church. Only relatives and immediate friends were present to witness the rites. The wedding music was given by Miss Edith Wilson, who played three piano numbers, the sextet from "Lucia" and "Souvenir," by Lack, were played before the wedding party appeared. The wedding march from "Lohengrin" was played as the bride and groom entered the parlor, attended by Mr. Harry Lyle and Miss Mabel Mason, a sister of the bride. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Lewis left on the Burlington for Kansas City, and they will also visit points in Kansas. The bride wore a dark blue traveling suit with hat and gloves to match and a corsage bouquet of violets. They will be at home to their friends at 615 East Fourth street after March 15. Mr. Lewis is a salesman for the Corwin-Murray Clothing company, and is the son of Mrs. Amanda Lewis of this city. Mrs. Lewis is one of Maryville's most popular girls. They have the happy wishes of many friends.

Hardisty-Hoshor Wedding.

A wedding took place Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hardisty, ten miles south of Maryville, when their daughter, Miss Alta Hardisty, was given in marriage to Mr. Douglas Hoshor, a young farmer of that community. The ring service was used by the officiating minister, Rev. Claude J. Miller of the First Christian church of this city. The ring was carried in the heart of a lily by Mary Marguerite Hardisty, the 3-year-old sister of the bride. The bride was lovely in her gown of soft white silk, with trimmings of shadow lace and bands of satin messaline with a touch of pale blue. Her bridal veil was held in place by lilies of the valley, and she carried bride roses. The wedding march was played by Miss Gertrude Icke. After congratulations the bridal couple led the way to the dining room, where an elegant three-course dinner was served to the guests. The house decorations were in green and white. A large white wedding bell hung from an evergreen hoop over the table. Fern leaves were used exclusively in decorating the table. Mrs. Hardisty, mother of the bride, was assisted by her sister, Mrs. W. R. Hughes, and daughters, Misses Nellie and Merle Hardisty, and Miss Marie Gross. Mr. Hoshor and his bride will be at home after March 1st on a farm nine and a half miles south of Maryville. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hoshor, south of Maryville, and both he and the bride have the well wishes of many friends for a happy life. The wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hardisty and Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Miller of Maryville, Miss Gertrude Icke and Miss Marie Gross.

The story the bank book tells

There is no more interesting reading than the credit pages in your bank book, telling you the sum that is held subject to your order. Your success is measured by the figures in your bank book. If you have a bank account which is growing every month, you are on the royal road to success.

Employers are quick to learn of the fellow with a bank book and he is the man they look to first when responsible positions are open.

MARVELOUS

CLAIRVOYANT

Reads Thoughts and Tells the Past and Future—Insists Upon Satisfaction to His Clients.

The success which has attended the marvelous manifestations of Mr. Bauer since his arrival in Maryville constitutes a tribute to his ability which is impossible to over-estimate. It is no exaggeration to say that each successive day has witnessed the delight and astonishment of scores of applicants who tested his powers.

One of the things upon which Mr. Bauer justly prides himself is the high class of his clientele. Those who consult him are the very best people of Maryville, not superstitious, fanatical or ignorant persons, but men and women of rare intelligence and judgment.

As has been frequently stated in the Maryville papers, Mr. Bauer is a man whose statements need no verification other than he is able to give them through his wonderful powers, Mr. Bauer, it must be truthfully said, employs none of the mysterious machinery which often serves to make spiritual manifestations suspicious. He impresses his gift upon the people who consult him without the employment of a single mechanical agency. In fact, he makes his clients understand that the power to read and see hidden things lies within him and it is not to be brought into action through the aid of inanimate influences.

Therefore it must be said that Mr. Bauer is of the very highest class of clairvoyants. His belief is that the material heavens have a moral influence over the earth and its inhabitants. There are some wiseacres who scoff at this idea, not knowing, perhaps, that the first study of the heavens embraced and dominated over every other attempt at science. Astrology was the beginning of science, the first encyclopedia of the world. In the ancient ages physicians consulted the stars and gave nostrums. The cosmogonists explained the earth by the influence of the heavens. The Zodiac was the first book that lay open for all to read.

Ladies and gentlemen can visit Mr. Bauer without fear of having their confidence betrayed, as he considers his business a sacred trust. Mr. Bauer can be consulted daily at private residence, 322 North Mulberry street, corner of Fourth, the Maplehurst.

Hours—9 a. m. to 8 p. m. daily; 10 to 4 Sundays.

Readings $1.00, no more and no less. Mrs. Bauer receives all callers.

Notice—Positively no one seen after hours and no young ladies under 18 given readings unless accompanied by parents or guardians.—Advertisement.

Cause for Alarm

Loss of appetite or distress after eating—a symptom that should not be disregarded.

It is not what you eat but what you digest and assimilate that does you good. Some of the strongest, healthiest persons are moderate eaters. Nothing will cause more trouble than a disordered stomach, and many people contract serious maladies through disregard or abuse of the stomach.

We urge all who suffer from indigestion, or dyspepsia, to try Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets, with the understanding that we will refund the money paid us without question or formality if after use you are not perfectly satisfied with results.

We recommend Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets to customers every day, and have yet to hear of one who has not been benefited. We believe them to be without equal. They give prompt relief, aiding to neutralize acidity, stimulate flow of gastric juice, strengthen the digestive organs, and thus promote perfect nutrition and correct unhealthy symptoms. Bryan, McAdoo, Daniels and Burleson
Become Finalities in List of Cabinet
Positions—War and Agriculture Said to Be in Doubt.

FOUR CABINET CERTAINTIES.

Secretary of State—William J. Bryan of Nebraska.
Secretary of the Treasury—William G. McAdoo of New York.
Secretary of the Navy—Josephus Daniels of North Carolina.
Postmaster General—Albert Sidney Burleson of Texas.

Washington, Feb. 26.—Cabinet gossip took a decidedly active turn about the capitol. Democratic leaders professed for the first time to speak with definiteness regarding the official family of President elect Wilson. It was evident that something more than speculation had come to the knowledge of those closely identified with the new administration, but the sources of this information were not disclosed.

It was said that the cabinet as a whole had been completed with the exception of a secretary of war and a secretary of agriculture. The choice of W. J. Bryan as secretary of state is looked upon as definitely settled. Another appointment spoken of as definite is that of Albert S. Burleson of Texas as postmaster general, although it was said Mr. Burleson might be shifted to the secretaryship of the interior before the personnel of the cabinet is announced.

Others believed to have been decided upon for cabinet portfolios are Josephus Daniels of North Carolina and William G. McAdoo of New York. Democrats believed to be in possession of accurate information from Trenton decline to indicate the portfolios to which Daniels and McAdoo might be assigned.

Some of the information is of a negative character. It was asserted with considerable positiveness that neither Representative Robert L. Henry of Texas nor Edward R. Walker of New Jersey would be designated as attorney general.

The selection of A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania as attorney general or in some other cabinet position was considered probable, but in some quarters it was said that Mr. Wilson was desirous of utilizing Mr. Palmer's services in the house of representatives.

SOLONS DISOBEY WILSON

New Jersey Legislature Refuses to Push Jury Reform Bill.

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 26.—Governor Woodrow Wilson warned the members of the New Jersey legislature that as president of the United States he would feel privileged to come back even as early as next week to fight before the people of the state for pending reforms.

Mr. Wilson resigned the governorship to take effect Saturday. Both houses hardly had received his notice of resignation when the assembly went on record by an overwhelming vote against pushing the jury reform bill from first to second reading. This bill had been urged particularly by Mr. Wilson in his messages. It would take away the power to draw juries from the sheriffs, lodging it with a commission appointed by the governor.

Mr. Wilson believes the principle of justice in this country is at stake in the process of selecting juries and he declared that soon after his inauguration he might deliver speeches on this subject in northern New Jersey, most of whose assemblymen voted in effect against the governor.

THIRD MADERO IS SHOT DOWN

Emilio Killed When Overaken by Trevino's Troops.

MANNER OF DEATH NOT CLEAR

Fighting, Which Lasts Two Hours,
Results From Ambush of Military
Train Between Ozumba and Capital.
Zapatistas Yet on Warpath.

Mexico City, Feb. 26.—Emilio Madero, a brother of the late president, has been shot and killed north of Monterrey, according to reliable information received here.

With an escort of thirty-five men Madero, it is said, was attempting to join the rebels holding Laredo when he was overtaken by troops sent by General Trevino. The reports do not indicate whether Madero was killed in action or was executed.

The shooting of Madero took place between Villadama and Bastamante. As the rebel leader in the Laredo district, Geronimo Villare, is a partisan of General Trevino, the government expects that the trouble in that vicinity soon will be adjusted.

Emilio Madero, in conjunction with his brother, Raoul, began a counter-revolution at San Pedro, in the state of Coahuila, a few days ago, in the expectation of uniting the rebels about Saltillo with those in the Laredo district.

Peace Not to Be Had Soon.

Hope for immediate peace in Mexico is slight. Rebel activity in the north has increased and the government's efforts to enter into arrangements with the Zapatistas appears to have failed.

Whether the rebels whose center is the state of Coahuila have increased numerically is not known, but they have so conducted their operations that already communication with the frontier has been stopped.

In the south the Zapatistas continue burning and raiding and an attack on a military train between Ozumba and Mexico City leaves little doubt as to their attitude toward the new administration. The attack was of the ordinary ambush type. The train was stopped by a burned out bridge and the fighting continued for more than two hours.

Rebels Would Keep Titles.
One of the demands of the Zapatistas, made by the commissioner representing that section of the rebels, was that all Zapatista officers be admitted to the regular establishments with corresponding rank, some having assumed the title of general. To this the government strongly objected.

The commissioners left in order to report to their chief and soon word came back that the Zapatistas considered the revolution still in progress.

The government has sent forces southward toward Cuernavaca along the line of the Central railway, a portion of which will be rebuilt.

Reports from Morelos indicate that the work of destruction during the last twenty-four hours had been more complete.

BIG TEMPEST IN A TEAPOT

Troops Rushed to Brownsville Under Misunderstanding.

Brownsville, Tex., Feb. 26.—The dispatch of several companies of state and federal troops to protect Americans against alleged dangers from Mexican soldiers in Matamoras, Mexico, appears to have been the result of a decided misunderstanding. Matamoras, according to Americans arriving here, was about the quietest place on the map during the alleged trouble.

The troops were ordered out when Captain Head of the local state forces declared American Consul Johnson at Matamoras had asked him whether he (Head) could enter Mexico if necessary. Captain Head immediately wired this to Governor Colquitt. Consul Johnson laughed at reports that he had been in peril.

The military commander in Matamoras levied on Mexican residents of the city to maintain his soldiers as protection against bandits. Americans, however, were not molested. While the rumors were in circulation Texas state troops were ordered to the border.

New Plan Will Be Needed.

New York, Feb. 26.—Julius Kruttschnitt, chairman of the Southern Pacific company, said that the Union Pacific Southern Pacific dissolution plan would "go by the board" and that a new plan would have to be evolved should the courts uphold the decision of the California state railway commission.

Mrs. R. H. Perry went to Kansas City Tuesday evening on business.

Dr. PRICE'S
Cream Baking Powder

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is free from alum and lime phosphates. Made from grape Cream of tartar and absolutely pure. Its use is a safeguard to health, for it actually aids digestion, and relieves from all anxiety as to the wholesomeness of the food.

On the other hand each attempted imposition of an alum baking powder upon the consumer is a covert attack upon the health of the family. Of course, no grocer would knowingly sell injurious food to his customers; but he has himself been deceived as to the true character of the cheap powders by their manufacturers.

Forewarned, and solicitous for the health of her family, the housewife will be influenced to a constant watchfulness and a stubborn resistance against the danger.

Baking Powders sold at a lower price than Dr. Price's are almost invariably made from alum, and therefore inferior, and prejudicial to health.

SAGE-TEA WILL
DARKEN THE HAIRRestore Faded and Gray Hair
to Natural Color—Dandruff
Quickly Removed.

There is nothing new about the idea of using Sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our grandmothers kept their hair dark, glossy and abundant by the use of a simple "Sage Tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance, they made a brew of Sage leaves, and applied it to their hair with wonderfully beneficial effect.

Nowadays we don't have to resort to the old-time tiresome method of gathering the herbs and making the tea. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves; and all we have to do is to call for the ready-made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing Sage in the proper strength, with the addition of Sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy.

This preparation gives youthful color and beauty to the hair, and is one of the best remedies you can use for dandruff, dry, feverish, itching scalp, and falling hair. Get a fifty cent bottle from your druggist today, and you will be surprised at the quick results. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented. Agent Kock Pharmacy.

MOTHERS OF PUNY CHILDREN.

May Find Help in This Letter.

"My little daughter ever since her birth had been frail and sickly, and was a constant source of worry. Several months ago I secured a bottle of Vinol and commenced to give it to her. I soon noticed an improvement in her health and appearance. I gave her in all three bottles and from the good it has done her I can truly say it will do all you claim."—J. Edmund Miller, New Haven, Conn.

The reason Vinol builds up weak, ailing children so quickly is because it contains in a delicious combination the two most world-famed tonics—i. e., the strength creating, body building elements of cod liver oil, with all the useless grease eliminated, and tonic iron for the blood added. If you have a weak, puny, ailing child try Vinol. Our offer to return your money if it fails to benefit your little one. Orca-Henry Drug Co., Maryville, Mo.—Advertisement.

IN NEW YORK

Government Physician Meets Tuberculosis Serum Discoverer.

BACILLI COMES FROM TURTLE

German Surgeon Says He Has Made Hundreds of Cures of White Plague During the Last Fourteen Years. Has Treated Thousands.

New York, Feb. 26.—The United States government took official recognition of the claim of Dr. Frederick Friedmann to the discovery of a cure for tuberculosis when, by order of the surgeon general, a physician of the United States marine service, Dr. Milton H. Foster, was sent to meet the young German physician on his arrival here aboard the steamship Kronprinzessin Cecilie.

At the request of the government surgeon, Dr. Friedmann consented to turn over a quantity of his bacilli to be tested by the government and to demonstrate the efficacy of his cure by physicians of the hospital service.

Dr. Friedmann, who comes to this country at the invitation of Charles E. Finlay, a New York banker, who hopes the physician will be able to cure his son-in-law of the disease, declared that his remedy was not a secret and that he proposed to make known "to all the world" the method by which it was created and the manner in which it was administered.

It consisted of bacilli taken from a turtle, into which tubercular bacilli from a human being had been injected, he explained.

"I have been working upon the cure for fourteen years, and in the last two and a half years I have treated from 2,500 to 3,000 patients," he asserted. "How many I have absolutely cured I cannot estimate, but their number has run into hundreds. The remedy cures all forms of tuberculosis except such cases as are quite hopeless—that is, on the point of death."

Attorney General and Counsel for Terminal Association Have Tilt.

St. Louis, Feb. 26.—Attorney General Wickham appeared before the United States court for the eastern district of Missouri and asked that the St. Louis terminal charge, known as the bridge arbitrary, be abolished.

This arbitrary, the government contends, is a bridge toll levied by the Terminal Railway association on coal shipped from Illinois fields into St. Louis and constitutes a discrimination against St. Louis.

The request was a clause of an interlocutory decree, submitted to Circuit Judges Sanborn, Hook and Smith, sitting as the district court, to make effective the decree of the federal supreme court destroying the alleged terminal monopoly.

The arguments before the court brought a sharp clash between the attorney general and Henry S. Priest, counsel for the terminal association.

Mrs. Sickles Again Aids General.

New York, Feb. 26.—Mrs. Caroline G. Sickles, who pawned her jewels several months ago to save the household effects of her husband, General Daniel E. Sickles, from going under the hammer, again may prevent the sheriff from selling him out. General Sickles' effects were to have been sold at public auction March 7 to satisfy a judgment held by a bank, but Mrs. Sickles filed with the sheriff a chattel mortgage covering all furniture in the general's Fifth avenue home. The mortgage is for $12,000, was executed Dec. 6, 1912, and was witnessed by General Sickles' lawyer.

Civil Trial for Mother Jones.

Charleston, W. Va., Feb. 26.—The supreme court of West Virginia decided that Adjutant General Elliott, in command of the military in the Kanawha strike country, must produce Mother Jones and other strike leaders in court today. Habeas corpus proceedings were begun in order that they might be tried by a civil court instead of by the military commission. The order of the court that the prisoners be brought to Charleston is accepted by the miners as a victory in the proceedings.

Gompers to Advise Iron Workers.

Indianapolis, Feb. 26.—The delegates to the annual convention of the union ordered action deferred on all questions involving the future of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Iron Workers, all but two of whose officials were convicted at the "dynamite conspiracy" trial, until after the visit of Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor. President Ryan announced he had received a telegram from Mr. Gompers saying the latter would be here tomorrow.

SYRUP OF FIGS IS

BEST FOR A CHILD

If Its Little Tongue is Coated, Breath Feverish, Stomach Sour and Bowels Clogged.

Every mother immediately realizes after giving her child delicious Syrup of Figs that this is the ideal laxative and physic for the children. Nothing else regulates the little one's stomach so promptly, besides they dearly love its delightful fig taste.

If your child isn't feeling well; resting nicely; eating regularly and acting naturally it is a sure sign that its little insides need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once.

When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or your little one has stomach ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, tongue coated; give a teaspoonful of Syrup of Figs and in a few hours all the foul, constipated food and sour bile will gently move on and out of its little bowels without nausea, griping or weakness, and you will surely have a well, happy and smiling child again shortly.

With Syrup of Figs you are not drugging your children, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics, it cannot be harmful.

Mothers should always keep Syrup of Figs handy. It is the only stomach, liver and bowel cleanser and regulator needed—a little given today will save a sick child tomorrow.

Full directions plainly printed on the package.

Ask your druggist for the full name, "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," prepared by the California Fig Syrup Co. This is the delicious tasting, genuine old reliable. Refuse anything else offered.—Advertisement.

LAXATIVE FOR OLD PEOPLE—"CASCARETS"

What Glasses Are to Weak Eyes, Cascarets Are to Weak Bowels—A 10-Cent Box Will Truly Amaze You.

Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles.

So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets, and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.—Advertisement.

MEXICAN REBELS ARE LESS ACTIVE

Huerta Thinks He Knows How to End Zapatista Troubles.

OTHER INSURRECTOS GIVE UP.

Orozco Sends Telegram to General Diaz Declaring Allegiance to New Government—Rabasa Is Appointed Ambassador to United States.

Mexico City, Feb. 27.—Keen satisfaction was displayed at the palace over late reports concerning the early disappearance of revolutionary disturbances in the north and south parts of the country.

It is not believed that the Zapatista problem, especially in the state of Morelos, will be solved immediately, but several minor chiefs have announced their willingness to serve the government.

The government officials realize the probability of a difficult campaign in the south, but General Huerta, who commanded the federals in the campaign which most nearly resulted in the ending of the Zapatista troubles, and was checked only by Madero's benevolent interferences, believes he knows the situation sufficiently well to end the trouble.

The Zapatistas have added to the list of towns they already occupied Amecameca, on the Inter-oceanic rail way, thirty miles southeast of Mexico City, and three others of minor importance. Raiding continues, with the usual atrocities, but troops are in pursuit of the murderous bands, for whom little rest is promised.

The revolution in the state of Guerrero appears likely of early settlement since Jesus Salgado, the oldest and most persistent rebel leader under Andrea Almazan and Julio Radilla, promises allegiance.

According to government advices, Venustiano Carranza, former governor of Coahuila, is making little headway in the new revolution inaugurated by him, with Saltillo as a base.

Raoul Madero Reported Killed. To the report that Emilio Madero was killed was added a rumor that his brother, Raoul, has met the same fate at Torreon. Both these young men were actively allied with Carranza, and, if true, their taking off doubtless will have a deterrent effect on rebel activity in that district.

Carranza still holds the region about Monterey, but General Trevino, the federal commander, who is at Monterey, is said to, have dispatched troops in the direction of Saltillo. The government believes there will be little difficulty in regaining the rebel territory.

That region to the north of Monterey, including Laredo, now held by the rebels, the government asserts will soon be added to the loyal districts.

Colonel Pascual Orozco, Sr., who was allied with that movement, is known to have been for a long time under the domination of Pascual Orozco, Jr., and a telegram sent by the latter to General Felix Diaz, promising absolute allegiance to the government, is regarded as indicative of his father's.

Emilio Rabasa has been appointed ambassador of Mexico to the United States.

CASTRO WELCOMED TO CUBA

Former Venezuelan Dictator Greeted Enthusiastically by Populace.

Havana, Feb. 27.—General Cipriano Castro, former dictator of Venezuela, arrived here on board the steamer Saratoga from New York and was greeted enthusiastically by the populace. No opposition was offered to his landing. The immigration officials afforded him all possible facilities.

A flotilla of tugs and launches, crowded with people, met the Saratoga off Morro castle and accompanied it to its anchorage. On board one tug was the municipal band, lent by the mayor of Havana, which played the Cuban and Venezuelan national anthems. Another tug was occupied by a committee of Cuban veterans.

General Castro landed on San Juan wharf, where 500 people were gathered. As he passed through the crowd he raised his hat and repeated several times "Viva" for the Cuban nation. The people responded with cheers for Castro.

The entire crowd followed the visitor, who drove in an automobile decorated with the Venezuelan colors, to his hotel, where General Rafael Reyes, ex-president of Colombia, also resides.

Wickersham Resumes Smelting Probe.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The department of justice has resumed its investigation of the American Smelting and Refining company, to determine whether it is a "smelting trust" in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law. Responding to a house resolution a year ago, Attorney General Wickersham said there was no evidence at this time in possession of the government warranting prosecution.

Mrs. Pankhurst Committed for Trial. Epsom, England, Feb. 27.—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, the militant suffragette leader, was committed for trial by the police magistrate here on the charge of inciting persons to commit malicious damage to property. Her defense was reserved for the trial at the assizes.

ARCTIC EXPEDITION TO EXPLORE WIDE AREA

Stefansson Announces Plans for Four-Year-Trip.

New York, Feb. 27.—Vilhjalmur Stefansson, discoverer of the blond Eskimo, made public his plans for the four-year expedition he plans to lead to the Arctic next May. In this space he hopes to wipe off the map much of the white space indicating unexplored regions of the far north.

Stefansson and his companions—eight or ten picked men of science—will sail out of Esquimalt, B. C., near Victoria, the latter part of May or in early June on the steam whaler Karluk, purchased for the expedition by the Canadian government.

The barkentine will carry the party as far north as ice-filled seas will permit. Under favorable conditions some time in September they expect to reach land somewhere in the Beaufort sea, now unexplored. There they will establish a base, sending the vessel back and remaining for the winter. In the spring they will go north. They will return to civilization in September, 1916.

Dr. R. M. Anderson of Iowa, who was with Stefansson on his last trip, will be second in command. A powerful wireless apparatus, designed to carry messages 1,000 miles, will keep the explorers in daily touch with the world.

MAY RESUME RACE MEETS

New York Jockey Club Stewards Issue Significant Statement.

New York, Feb. 27.—From the wordings of a statement issued after meeting of the stewards of the Jockey club and of the several racing associations, the impression prevails among racing men that the powers that govern horse racing in this vicinity have about decided to open some of the metropolitan tracks the coming season. The way is held to have been paved for such action by a recent court decision holding oral betting not unlawful, thereby exempting directors of racing associations from liability for betting in this form.

Tells of Auto Ride With Victim's Body.

Salem, Mass., Feb. 27.—For half an hour after he had killed George E. Marsh, an aged manufacturer of Lynn, William A. Dorr drove up and down the Lynn boulevard with the body propped up beside him in the single seat of his runabout. Other automobilists passed him, but he attracted no attention. This is a part of the story Dorr told to a jury before which he is being tried for murder.

Bill for Department of Labor.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The bill to create a department of labor, with a cabinet officer at its head, passed the senate after less than an hour's consideration. The measure had previously passed the house, but amendments in the senate will require its presentation in conference before it is presented to President Taft.

CARDUI WORKED LIKE A CHARM

After Operation Failed to Help, Cardui Worked Like a Charm.

Jonesville, S. C.—"I suffered with womanly trouble," writes Mrs. J. S. Kendrick, in a letter from this place, "and at times, I could not bear to stand on my feet. The doctor said I would never be any better, and that I would have to have an operation, or I would have a cancer."

I went to the hospital, and they operated on me, but I got no better. They said medicines would do me no good, and I thought I would have to die.

At last I tried Cardui, and began to improve, so I continued using it. Now, I am well, and can do my own work. I don't feel any pains.

Cardui worked like a charm." There must be merit in this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women—Cardui—for it has been in successful use for more than 50 years, for the treatment of womanly weakness and disease.

Please try it, for your troubles. N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chatterbox Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions, and 64-page book, "Home Treatment for Women," sent in plain wrapper, on request.

POLICE REFORMS RECOMMENDED

New York Committees Join In Suggesting Changes in Laws.

FEW GRAFTERS, SAYS GAYNOR.

Mayor insists That Great Majority of Police Are Not Corrupt and That Newspapers Are in Graft Up to Their Armpits.

New York, Feb. 27.—Three committees, one appointed by the state legislature, one by the board of aldermen and one by a board of citizens, joined in an effort to reform the New York police force. The result of their labors probably will be legislative bills providing for sweeping changes.

Mayor Gaynor was the principal witness before the legislative committee, while two of his predecessors, former Mayors McClellan and Low, gave their views to the committee of aldermen. At the same time the citizens' committee, appointed immediately after the murder of the gambler, Herman Rosenthal, laid before the legislative committee detailed recommendations.

The most radical reform suggested was the appointment of a new commission, to be called the "board of social welfare," which should take from the present police force the duty of regulating gambling, social vice and the liquor traffic. This plan was presented by the citizens' committee.

Former Mayor McClellan united with the citizens' committee in the belief that it is impossible to suppress the Sunday sale of liquor in New York and that the present law invites the levying of police tribute on saloon-keepers.

Mayor Gaynor declared that among the 10,000 New York policemen there were not more than fifty grafters.

"I hope there will be no delusion at Albany," the mayor said. "Do not think that the police of New York are failing in their duty or are corrupt; it is not so. And don't get the notion that the newspapers are not in this graft—they've been in it up to their armpits for twenty-five years."

ANHUT MAKES DENIAL

Lawyer Accused by Dr. Russell in Thaw Case Testifies.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 27.—John Nicholson Anhut, the lawyer accused by Dr. John W. Russell, superintendent of Matteawan hospital, of having offered him a bribe of $20,000 to release Harry K. Thaw, was a witness before Governor Sulzer's committee of inquiry.

Anhut, who was formerly a Michigan state senator, told of meeting Dr. Russell often and of discussing the Thaw case. He said Dr. Russell recommended him to Thaw, from whose agent Anhut received $25,000, which was to be returned unless the lawyer succeeded in freeing Thaw.

Anhut said that Russell asked where he (Russell) "would come in," and that later Russell asked him if he would be satisfied with $5,000. Anhut said: "If Dr. Russell had in his mind that he was to receive any money, such a proposition was not in my mind. I would not even give him a Christmas present, because it might look like a bribe. When I saw that Russell wanted money I dropped the subject and left him."

The lawyer denied having used Governor Sulzer's name in connection with the Thaw case.

Uncle Sam Will Have Tea Party.

New York, Feb. 27.—A tea party by the federal government on the Hudson river is scheduled for March 3, according to announcement that the customs authorities here have been authorized to dump into the river 20,000 packages of imported tea which did not come up to the standards Uncle Sam has set up for that beverage. The tea weighs almost 100,000 pounds and belongs to Carter Macey, an importer, who is fighting the proposed action of the government.

Negro Women Fall in Line.

Baltimore, Feb. 27.—After a two days' stay here the suffragette "army of the Hudson" resumed its on to Washington march and arrived at Laurel, twenty miles from here. Recruits from Baltimore started with the hikers, but all but four turned back when the city limits were reached. At Elkridge five negro women, with a banner inscribed "Votes for Colored Women," fell in line, but dropped out after walking several hundred yards.

Two Battleship Program Defeated.

Washington, Feb. 27.—The two-battleship program favorably reported by the house naval committee was defeated in the house sitting as a committee of the whole. An amendment to appropriate for one battleship only went through, 144 to 123. A majority of the Democrats voted for the amendment, while the Republicans were at most solidly against it.

German Aviator Killed.

Muelhausen, Germany, Feb. 27.—A German military aviator, Sergeant Helfersieder, was killed and his companion, Lieutenant Linse, seriously injured here. Their aeroplane fell while they were flying around the military aerodrome. Helfersieder took one of the turns too sharply and the machine toppled over backward.

Preventive Medicine—Small-Pox.

The epidemic of small-pox in Oklahoma serves as an illustration of the cost to a community of one infectious disease. The people are leaving their homes and places of business and the section is quarantined.

If the people would practice vaccination not a single case of small-pox need develop. The cost of vaccination to the infected areas would be only a small per cent of the cost of the disease.

It may be truly said that at this time there is no grounds for the presence of small-pox save the lack of knowledge and prejudice of the people.

A little Danderine will immediately double the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty and shimmer of true hair health.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove to yourself tonight—now—that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Danderine.—Advertisement.

MARVELOUS CLAIRVOYANT

Reads Thoughts and Tells the Past and Future—Insists Upon Satisfaction to His Clients.

The success which has attended the marvelous manifestations of Mr. Bauer since his arrival in Maryville constitutes a tribute to his ability which is impossible to over-estimate. It is no exaggeration to say that each successive day has witnessed the delight and astonishment of scores of applicants who tested his powers.

One of the things upon which Mr. Bauer justly prides himself is the high class of his clientele. Those who consult him are the very best people of Maryville, not superstitious, fanatical or ignorant persons, but men and women of rare intelligence and judgment.

As has been frequently stated in the Maryville papers, Mr. Bauer is a man whose statements need no verification other than he is able to give them through his wonderful powers. Mr. Bauer, it must be truthfully said, employs none of the mysterious machinery which often serves to make spiritual manifestations suspicious. He impresses his gift upon the people who consult him without the employment of a single mechanical agency. In fact, he makes his clients understand that the power to read and see hidden things lies within him and it is not to be brought into action through the aid of inanimate influences.

Therefore it must be said that Mr. Bauer is of the very highest class of clairvoyants. His belief is that the material heavens have a moral influence over the earth and its inhabitants. There are some wiseacres who scoff at this idea, not knowing, perhaps, that the first study of the heavens embraced and dominated over every other attempt at science. Astrology was the beginning of science, the first encyclopedia of the world. In the ancient ages physicians consulted the stars and gave nostrums. The cosmologists explained the earth by the influence of the heavens. The Zodiac was the first book that lay open for all to read.

Ladies and gentlemen can visit Mr. Bauer without fear of having their confidence betrayed, as he considers his business a sacred trust. Mr. Bauer can be consulted daily at private residence, 322 North Mulberry street, corner of Fourth, the Maplehurst.

Hours—9 a. m. to 8 p. m. daily; 10 to 4 Sundays.

Readings $1.00, no more and no less. Mrs. Bauer receives all callers.

Notice—Positively no one seen after hours and no young ladies under 18 given readings unless accompanied by parents or guardians.—Advertisement.

CLEAR THE WAY TO EDUCATION

Bill Disregarding Tuition Passes
Missouri Legislature.

PERSONS OVER 20 CAN ATTEND

Jefferson City, Feb. 27.—Persons more than twenty years old who want to get an education now can attend the public schools of Missouri without having to pay a tuition. The house passed a bill making this possible. It already has passed the senate and is now ready for Governor Major's signature.

The bill throws open the doors of the night schools of Kansas City and St. Louis to working young men and women, especially the foreigners. It reduces the school age from six to five and provides that the boards of education may grant gratuitous education to persons over twenty years old.

The bill was submitted as a constitutional amendment at the last election, but was defeated. Lawyers who investigated decided the matter could be brought about by statute.

A bill to create a state tax commission to find out what is the matter with the state's revenues was introduced in the house. It creates a commission of five to investigate the matter of taxation thoroughly and to lay its report before the governor and the legislature in two years. A second taxation bill also was introduced, reducing the state levy for the revenue fund from 15 cents to 10 cents on the $100 valuation.

FUND TO FIGHT HOG CHOLERA

State Will Aid Farmers in Stamping Out the Disease.

Jefferson City, Feb. 27.—The state is to aid the farmers in driving hog cholera from Missouri. The joint house and senate committees on agriculture reported favorably a bill appropriating $50,000 to equip a plant at the University of Missouri for manufacturing the serum which prevents the disease. It is to be sold to the farmers at cost.

Floyd S. Tuggle, chairman of the house committee, says that as soon as the plant is established every farmer in the state can obtain the serum at such a price that he cannot afford not to use. The agricultural department at the university is to have charge of the distribution of the serum to the farmers.

Bonner Marshal Goes Free.

Kansas City, Feb. 27.—Benjamin Milstead, city marshal of Bonner Springs, will not be prosecuted for shooting Charles Nelson in the depot in that city, Jan. 17. Residents of the town came to the aid of the man who for seven years has guarded their property at night, and W. W. Lacy, judge of the North City court, discharged him. Milstead shot Nelson while attempting to arrest him in the depot. He testified that Nelson drew a knife and attacked him.

Warrensburg Man Shot Father-in-Law.

Warrensburg, Mo., Feb. 27.—William Hall, a laborer, shot his father-in-law, Henry Ray, and Ray will die. Hall declares Ray had been drinking and abused Hall's wife. Hall remonstrated and Ray turned on him, when Hall fired two shots at his father-in-law.

Former St. Joseph Mayor Dead.

St. Joseph, Mo., Feb. 27.—Dr. Thomas H. Doyle, a pioneer physician and politician of St. Joseph, died here. Dr. Doyle had been mayor of St. Joseph and was a member of the board of police commissioners under Governor Folk.

LISTENS TO LAST HEARTBEAT

Instrument Maker Fastens Stethoscope to His Ear and Then Stabs Self.

Philadelphia, Feb. 27.—With a stethoscope applied to his ears, Karl W. Schneider, a manufacturer of surgical instruments, listened to his heart record its dying beats after he had pierced that organ with a steel lance. Near the body, which was discovered in the rear of his store, the police found a piece of paper on which was written the figures "1-2-2" and ending with "36."

Deputy Coroner McKeever believes this is the record of the pulsations Schneider had strength to record before his death.

Powers Decline Request of Turkey.

Constantinople, Feb. 27.—The mission to London of Ibrahim Hakki Pasha on behalf of the Ottoman government has failed. His object was to persuade the powers to support the claim of Turkey to the retention of Adrianople. He was, however, unable to prevail on the powers to accept the porte's note as a basis for fresh peace negotiations and he had no authority to go beyond the proposals contained in that document.

Earthquake in New Zealand.

Wellington, N. Z., Feb. 27.—With a report as of artillery discharges a heavy earthquake shook this city, terrorizing inhabitants, shaking down chimneys and damaging many houses. Nobody was killed, though many were cut by falling bricks from the toppled chimneys. The shock was the severest ever felt in New Zealand.

Putting On Specs.

I clamped them on the bony part of the bridge of the nose.

"No, no," cried the optician. "That don't do at all! About five thousand people out of five thousand put on their glasses wrong. Observe—I place the glasses above the bridge and as close to the eyes as possible. I spread the grips wide apart and settle them in the flesh well up at the very top of the nose. There you are, sir! Now, you try it."

He pushed toward me a small oval mirror that stood on a rod. I sat before it and faithfully worked at eye-glass drill. When at last I got the glasses high enough I had the top part canted too far forward. Again and again the optician had to push out the lower part of the glasses.

"Now you have it," he said, after half a dozen trials of my skill. "Please remember. Fix the glasses always parallel with the face and close to the eyes as possible."

"Oh—ow!" I exclaimed; "they'll give me cramps in the eyelids; the eyelashes are brushing them."

"Oh, well," he advised, patiently, as one who had traversed the ground a thousand times before, "if you like, you can take a pair of scissors and trim your eyelashes short. The nine members of your family will object that the trimming spoils your looks."

"A man's looks," I shouted. "Who ever heard of a man having 'looks'?"

"You'll see," said the optician—and, by George! he was right. Queer how much we still have to learn about femininity, no matter how ancient we may be.

After dinner I permitted myself to be discovered solemnly reading through the spectacles.

"Why, pay!" said Family, a little shocked but determined to be pleased. "How comfortable you seem! And you look exactly like a Japanese diplomat. Take care or people will take you for a highbrow."

Thus are we mocked when adversity overtakes us. But worse was to come. That ancient and implacable enemy of all mankind, the Candid Friend, was still to be heard.

"Fine!" he declared, with a cunning pretense of spontaneous admiration as he approached my desk this morning. "Fine! You look just like Ben, the Educated Pig, that used to travel with the circus."

Let them jibe, one and all. I care not.

Reading is once more a pleasure. And when I look up from the page the glasses, which magnify objects and bring them nearer, show me that she is lovelier than ever.—William Hemmingsway, in Harper's Weekly.

The First Valentine.

Have you ever quite forgotten it—the real "for-sure" one that came through the village postoffice directed unmistakably to you in a boy's chirpography?

How your heart jumped into your throat and stayed while you ran into the parlor and closed the door! How your breath made a pillar of cloud in which you stood by day and tried with teeth and chilled fingers to untie the well wrapped and beautiful mystery! For of course it was beautiful, penny dreadfuls of earlier years counting not at all in the genuine valentine list.

Do you remember how your eyes filled with glad tears, through which danced countless pink rose wreaths and flaming hearts on paper embroidered artistically enough for a queen's coronation robe? And the rotund, well-nourished Cupid, dressed only for a February day in the tropics, who stood in the middle distance and aimed love tipped arrows straight at you?

Then, oh, the heavenly perfume of musk and Jockey Club arising from the plumpiest of blue satin cushions in the upper right hand corner! How superior to the attar of roses of today!

And the tilting lines in the foreground! The wonderful, rhythmical quatrains and couplets in which love more amazing than you had ever suspected was boldly proclaimed in melodious verse.

Has any "Be mine, dear one!" of later years thrilled you with quite the same unparalleled bliss as

The rose that blooms in June is fine,
So are the stars above,
And you must be my valentine
For you're the one I love!

or

As sure as the grape grows on a vine I'm going to have you for a valentine! And is it not a fact that your first impulse was to show the rest of the family only an edition with the sentimental and piratical printing carefully expurgated lest eyes twinkle through lack of sympathetic understanding?

Of course, you didn't know who sent it! It might have been Ira C.—in the fourth grade, because his father was rich, or Horace F.—, upstairs, who took you home on his sled so often after school, and it might have been—but at the glorious possibility you blush and tremble, but say never a word. Oh, if it only were from him! At the improbability of such a miracle, your heart left its lodging place in your throat and gravitated swiftly to the shoes upon your feet, coming gradually back to a normal position under the influence of baked squash and pink roses, both before you at dinner, served promptly at noon.

That was many valentines ago, when your hair ribbon was larger than his, and your cheeks the twenty-four-hour kind of rosy; but would a valentine of rubies and radium thrill you half so ecstatically today?—Nellie Parker Jones in Lippincott's Magazine.

If We Knew.

Could we but draw back the curtains That surround each other's lives,
See the naked heart and spirit,
Know what spur the action gives,
Often we would find it better,
Purer than we judge we should;
We should love each other better
If we only understood.

Could we judge all deeds by motives,
See the good and bad within,
Often we should love the sinner
All the while we loathe the sin.

Could we know the powers working
To overthrow integrity,
We should judge each other's errors
With more patient charity.

If we knew the cares and trials,
Knew the effort all in vain,
And the bitter disappointment,
Understood the loss and gain,

Would the grim external roughness
Seem, I wonder, just the same?
Should we help, where now we hinder,
Should we pity where we blame?

Ah! We judge each other harshly,
Knowing not life's hidden force;
Knowing not the fount of action
Is less turbid at its source.

Seeing not amid the evil
All the golden grains of good;
Oh, we'd love each other better
If we only understood.
